We talk of things that we believe in . . .

A black and white photograph of a woman with dark hair, wearing a light-colored shirt and dark pants, standing in front of a large movie poster board. She is looking at the posters. The poster board features several movie titles and small images: "CARRILL, ERNEST &amp; GEORGE BODDINGE", "LAW AND DISORDER", "THE STEPFORD WIVES", "HARRY &amp; TONTO", and "THE LONGEST YARD". There is also a section titled "IT'S SURVIVAL OF THE FIERCEST, AND THE FUNNIEST." and a small image of a person.

How sweet it is to love someone . . .

How right it is to care . . .

How long it's been since yesterday . . .

And what about tomorrow . . .

What about our dreams, and all the memories we've shared?

Art instructor presented with Cherokee dedication

A pleasing smile, the needed encouragement when you're ready to quit, someone who will stay at school until all hours just to help . . . this characterizes Mrs. Mildred Russum, recipient of the '75 Cherokee dedication.

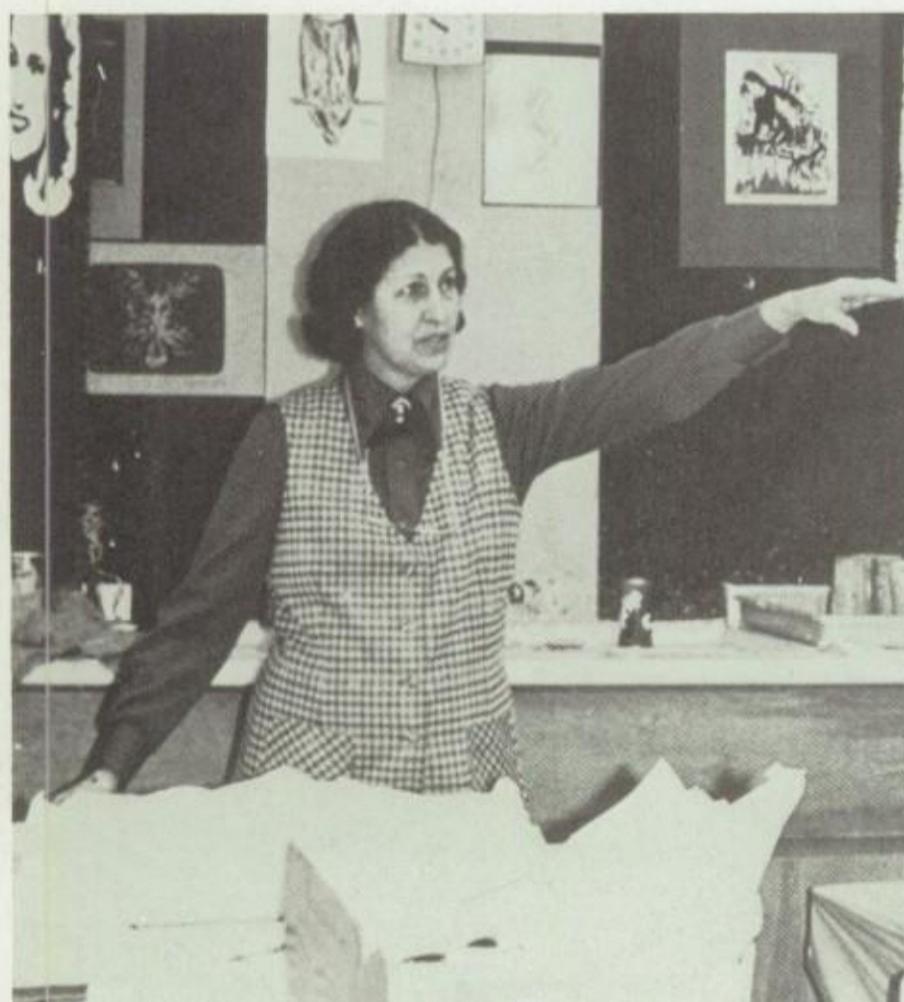

Even at the last minute, Mrs. Russum can be counted on to come up with art exhibits, signs for registration, and decorations. She may be the most imposed upon person here at Sam Houston.

A teacher since Sam's opening, Mrs. Russum is a devoted sports and academic fan. She is seldom missed at an assembly or a game.

A special person in a special school, we, the annual staff, dedicate this Cherokee to her.

Mickey Mice finally earn Texan spirit

"Sing you sophomore." "Not 'til you catch me." And so, a not yet Texan took off with seniors soon after him. All right! Another Howdy Day seen at Sam. Oh, how we pitied those sophs! They thought they were in for a simple assembly; ha, little did they know. If only they had taken the chance to skip. But it was too late now and wishing didn't help. Junior thoughts were "Revenge, revenge, revenge!" The idea of initiating the small mice sounded great. After what they went through last year, anything sounded good until . . . Seniors came along to put juniors back in their place. Weren't they lucky? They could get anyone to sing. Ah, but we will all have our chance at being top studs during this fantastic tradition . . . Howdy Day.

Pep rallies keep spirit shining on

"Ok, Sound off seniors!
Victory, victory is our cry,
that's the senior battle cry."

The pep rallies gave classes a chance to prove how good their spirit was. Those yelling loudest became owners of the spirit stick.

Assuming roles of Hee-Haw characters, the Texorcist, the Flintstones, and Dudley Do-Right were the cheerleaders, obliging teachers, and the bellguards.

The first Homecoming pep rally, to be held on a Saturday,

Drama Department presents 'Flowers for Algernon'

"Oh, you've got to be kidding.
We actually get to go home? I hope my mom recognizes me!"

After working till all hours of the night, members of the "Flowers for Algernon" crew were finally ready for opening night. The date was set for November 23 in Sam's theater.

Working behind the scenes was Julie Osburn, student director. Helping Julie were Tracy Waldeck, Betty Bentley,
Linda Love, and Eddie Manning.

Lead performers included
Carl Johnson, Ronnie Quade,
Bill Gassaway, Terry Bridges,
Sara Shub, and Julie Osburn.

The fall play was presented three times with ticket sales reaching almost $1000.

Big Sam bops on 50's Day

"I can't even believe this.
That guy with the long, long hair has it all slicked back, and is wearing his levis rolled up!"

The 50's were brought back to life with the Student Congress' 50's Day. Throughout the school high rise jeans, flannel shirts, and platform shoes were thrown aside for straight legged jeans, white t-shirts, knee-length dresses, and saddle oxfords.

As a climax for the 50's Day revival, KXOL sponsored a sock hop held in Sam's cafeteria.

'Reynard the Fox' proves entertaining for all ages

" . . . And the Oscar for the most original costumes goes to Sam Houston Drama Department for the production of "Reynard the Fox."

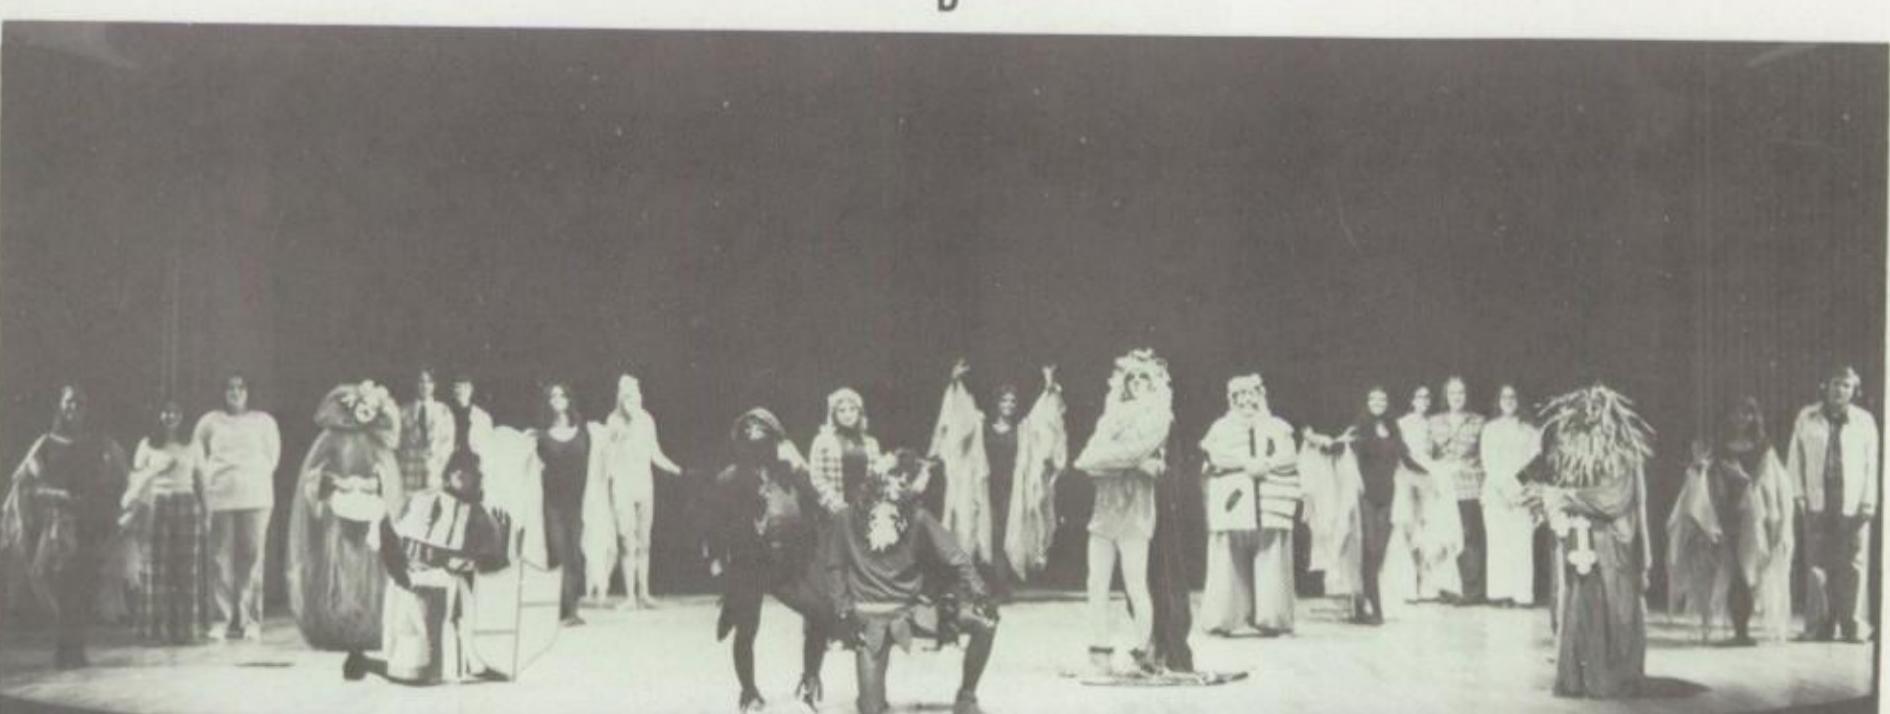

Making actors into crows, lions, porcupines, and wolves took hours of planning and work by the cast and crew of the play.

Leads were portrayed by juniors Terry Bridges, Jennifer Robinson, Tim Eller, and Vicki LeVesque. Seniors with leads were Betty Bentley and Ronnie Quade. The only sophomore with a major part was Koby Waldeck.

All the music for the show was written by Carl Johnson and performed by the dramatists.

Choir spends endless nights working on 'Music Man'

"Oh we got trouble . . . with a capital T and that rhymes with P, and that stands for pool!"

Professor Harold Hill and his magical dream of a boys' band were brought to Sam by the Choir Department. "Music Man" was presented at four performances.

Taking leads in the play were Carl Johnson, Pat Hegarty, Byron Buchanan, and Tara Hutchison.

The cast of over 50 was under the direction of Mr. Louis Harris.

Going first class, music for the production was provided by an orchestra. Sam's marching band got into the act also by performing in the finale. Record breaking crowds came to see the "Music Man" during its May run in the auditorium.

Wild West relived for Texas Day

"Yee-haw! Thank heaven for ropers and pick-up trucks, for Jerry Jeff and longnecks, and especially for Sam's Texan Day!"

Those having a secret desire to be a "kicker" let it all hang out on the annual Texan Day. The phrase, "I'll show her it's not peach fuzz," became popular as the beard growing contest started. True Texans at Sam stood up and were proud on this special day.

Western shirts, ten-gallon hats, boots, and overalls were worn by many, making Sam look like a regular country hick school.

As in those rough and rugged days of the Old West, Sam had its own taste of the "bad guys" coming to disrupt the town. Seniors were selected to portray law officials and gunfighters.

Cowpokes and their ladies moseyed to the carnival held that night. Booths with prizes and plenty of grub were available.

Proving that Sam gets first class was Channel Five. They filmed the carnival for the news.

Ropers 'get down' with Ray Wylie

"Hey Sam is finally showing that we know how to 'get down.' The number one, all time redneck is coming to give a concert! It's Ray Wylie Hubbard — far out!"

Sam students flipped out at the idea of Ray Wylie Hubbard coming to our auditorium to perform. But the so-called rumor was true, and he did come.

For a price of only $2.00, real country lovers heard the concert. Ray Wylie and his Cowboy Twinkies played everything from "Redneck Mother" to some good 'ole blues. They even gave a longer show than scheduled.

After performing, Ray talked with fans and signed autographs.

Thespians take 'Mary Stuart' to state competition

"Wow! We finally did it. Our one-act play is going all the way to state. It's another first!"

"Mary Stuart" was the Drama Department's one-act UIL play. The production was a New England version and focused mainly on the emotional conflicts between two Seventeenth Century queens.

The one-act began its climb at zone competition. From there the play won at district, area, and region. Then it was state-bound.

Various members of the cast won honors at all levels. Julie Osburn was chosen as best actress at zone, district, and area. She also made the all-star cast at state. Carl Johnson received the honor of best actor at district and area levels.

Others making all-star casts were Byron Buchanan, Vicky LeVesque, Sara Shub, and Ronnie Quade. Terry Bridges won three honorable mentions.

Journalists host program

"Breathe deeply, smile, and don't trip . . . Breathe deeply, smile, and don't trip . . . maybe if I keep saying it, I won't mess up."

Butterflies, dry mouths, plus the thought of tripping in front of everyone were all part of the Cherokee Awards Assembly.

Journalism students were in full charge of the program. The long kept secrets of who would win what were finally revealed.

Principal B. H. Remynse gave the cheerleaders a special award. Another new recognition came from the Newcomers Club.

Two seniors were named as Mr. and Miss Sam Hospitality.

The annual staff announced its most important honor. The staff presented the yearbook dedication to Mrs. Russum.

First State Bank plays at senior prom

"There never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you find them . . ."

For the seniors the year flew by, and all of the sudden it was time for the prom. Jim Croce's song "Time in a Bottle" was used as the theme for the big event.

Cibola Inn was the site for the affair. Prom goers were lucky enough to have a top rated group provide the music. First State Bank was the group which played.

Graduation held June 3

"I can't believe it's almost over; no more school ever!" These words were repeated often during the closing days of school.

Then it was here. The final activities for the seniors had begun. Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, June 1 at Texas Hall. Senior Class officers participated in the program.

President Carl Johnson and class secretary Sharon Reed gave the invocation and welcome.

Larry Kitchen, social chairman, read the scriptures. Betty Bentley, social chairman, introduced Rev. David B. Jockel of the Grace Lutheran Church.

The prayer was delivered by vice-president Hampton Hagar.

Texas Hall was also the site of the graduation exercises held Tuesday, June 3 at 8 p.m.

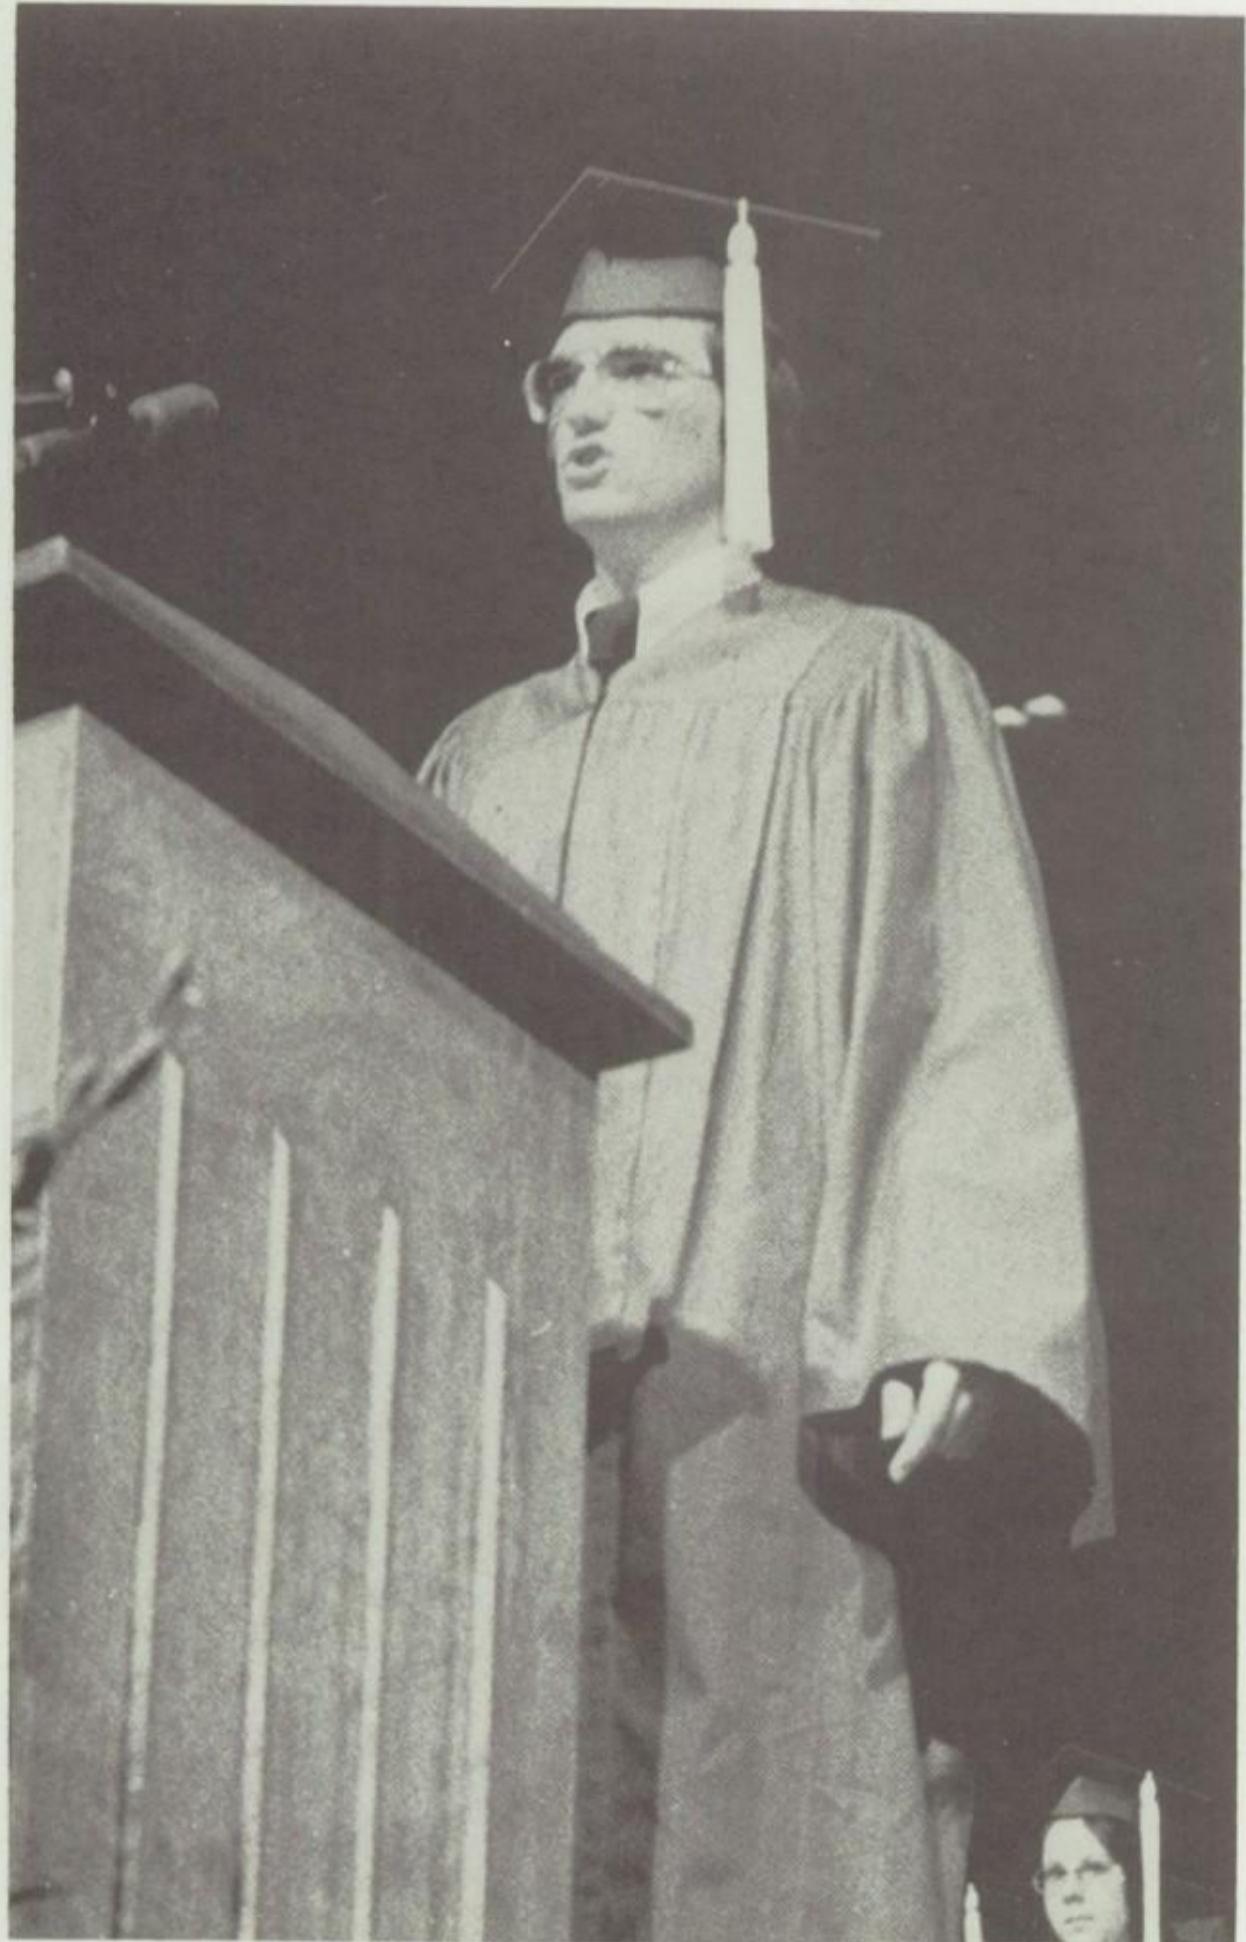

Student body president Len Massengale gave the invocation to a standing room only crowd.

Vice-president Doug Hudson welcomed the guests. Recording secretary Laura Kitchen talked on the events of the past years.

A Cappella Choir sang "Movin' On." After this, valedictorian Wayne Webb delivered his speech.

Doug, Jamie given titles

"This is it. The real biggie of all titles given at Sam. But wait, being chosen as Mr. and Miss Sam Houston is more than just a title. It's a privilege."

In early May Doug Hudson and Jamie Jones were voted Mr. and Miss Sam Houston. The school was another home for Jamie and Doug. High times were made here by them.

Doug was a major asset to Sam for his football and leadership abilities. Jamie was a varsity volleyballer, track queen, Miss School Spirit, and a cheerleader.

Homecoming crowd sees Cindy Smith crowned queen

"Watch out! The girls are on the make again. Homecoming is only two weeks away, and already you can see that light in their eyes saying, 'Take me, take me!'"

Homecoming '74 was the most anticipated social activity of the football season. A major part of the tradition was the task of choosing a queen. Cindy Smith, representative for DECA, was selected to receive the honor.

Cindy was up against some really tough competition. Eight, out of a field of 20 were chosen by the student body as finalists.

Those included in the last running were Susan Clark, Debbie Duncan, Felicia Forehand, Gayle Gansert, Jill Hopson, Sharon Reed, and Cindy Sikes.

Thoughts of posterized halls, and the seniors' pink elephant remained as Homecoming ended.

Sam spirit given boost

"Spike a Vike!" "Get a Colt!"
"Hit 'em again harder, harder!"

Spirit, pep rallies, and games would have been nothing without the never-ending yells of our cheerleaders. Seniors Felicia Forehand, Jamie Jones, Sharon Reed, and Cindy Sikes, along with juniors Jen Eades, Lee Ann Nuss, and Lisa Parker did the job. While attending camp, they took four superiors.

Twirp week added to plans

"Will we have any dances? How about 50's Day or poster parties?"

We had no need to worry about these questions. Our Student Congress had begun working long before the school year started.

Congress officers initiated some new ideas. Giving us a chance to see movies cheaply, they sponsored show nights. The "women" of Sam were able to ask the guys out during Twirp Week.

The Student Congress spring convention was held here at Sam.

Area schools were represented.

Organized by our Student Congress, the November magazine sale made money for all classes.

Females get their chance during first Twirp Week

"You just wait. There are only about 30 guys I plan to ask. Oh, it costs money? Well . . ."

Sam's first twirp week was held in late spring. Officially, the girls got to ask out the boys. Seeing the females pick up their dates and fork over money for the show was a familiar sight during this week of changing roles. Rules for participation were issued by officers of the Student Congress, who planned and sponsored this event. A dance held that weekend ended the activities and the boys went back to their original roles.

Bellguards take pleasure in ringing 'Big Sam' bell

It was another touchdown for the Texans, and the mighty sound of the Big Sam bell struck once again. Always there to signal momentum were bellguards Gayle Gansert, Mychele Lemley, Ricky Eddy, and Phil Sharp.

Using Phil's garage as a refuge, "Big Sam" was kept well out of the hands of envious schools. Besides taking the bell to all games, and caring for it, the guards helped write skits and performed them in rallies.

Now, what do you get? Spirit!"

School spirit, how do you get the great kind of spirit we have at Sam? The people do it.

Super active seniors,
Hampton Heger and Jamie Jones, were chosen by the students as Mr. and Miss School Spirit.

Hampton blew his heart out for Sam, being in the band and stage band. Jamie was a terrific

Visitors add to Sam scene

"What do you mean he has a chip on his shoulder? I don't see it." Getting used to our many slangs was only one problem for the four foreign exchange students.

Rosanna Intriago, the AFS exchange student, came from Ecuador. Among her interests was basketball. Jill Hopson hosted Rosanna for her four month stay.

Johnny Craniotis, from Honduras, came to Sam for six weeks. His main hobby, like most guys, was riding cycles.

Coming from different parts of Brazil were Waleska Paiva and Sergio Aspahan. Waleska studied six months, while Sergio was here for a total of three months.

"Wayne and Mike are really something else. Just think, graduating highest out of a class of more than 630 students!"

Having a grade point average of 11.7884, Wayne Webb was the valedictorian for the Class of '75. It was a goal he himself had set when first starting high school. In his spare time, Wayne got into chess, ping-pong, debating, music, and FLC.

Mike Parnell graduate with a 11.6473 average. Mike was involved in Student Council, NHS, Kiwanis Youth Day, and Science Recognition Day.

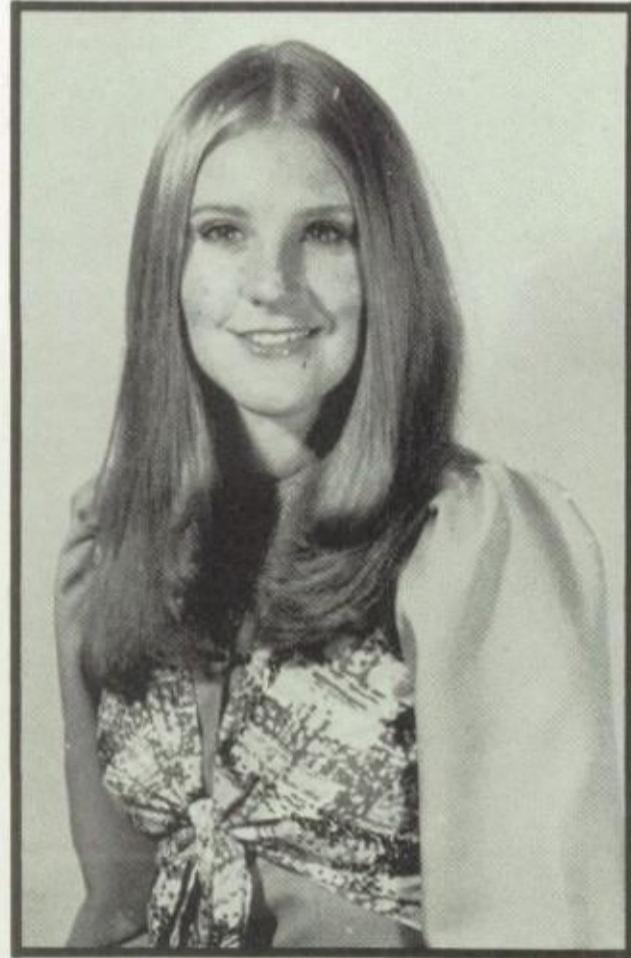

Scholarships were won by both honor graduates. Wayne was the recipient of a $6700 grant from Bell and Howell. Mike received his scholarship to UTA.

Top 10 academic students were Elsie Davis, Pat Gattis, Judy Adams, Kim Narramore, Mike Durland, Janis Rhue, Cathy Bautovich, Keith Harris, Ann Bauer, and Rodney Lewis.

Outstanding Texans receive special distinctions

At the Cherokee Assembly on May 7, Jill Hopson is named Girl of the Year by Mrs. Mary Gerard of the Arlington Civic Club.

Tim Phillips is awarded the Mike Green Scholarship by former coach Elo Nohavitza.

Rodney Lewis leaves after receiving an Optimist Award from Mr. Gary Burton.

Being chosen Mr. Sam Houston, Doug Hudson was also a participant in Boys' State last summer. The seminar was held in Austin.

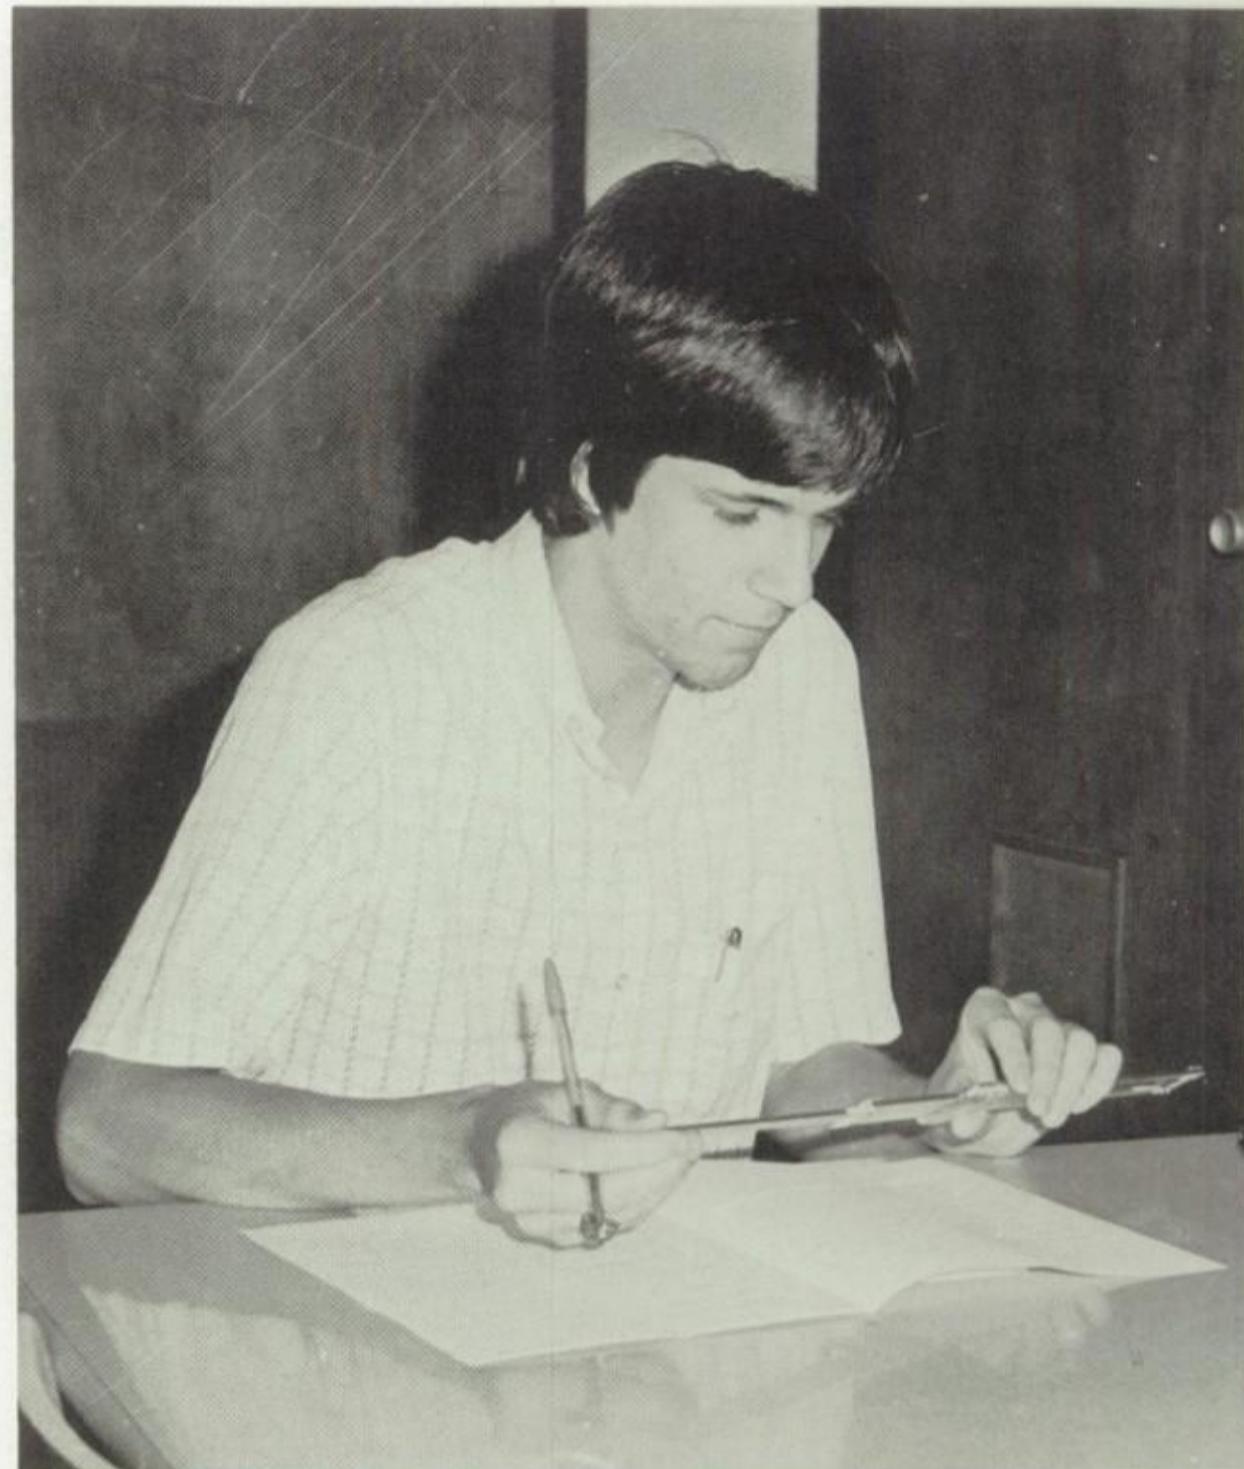

Doug Hudson, Felicia Forehand accept American Legion Awards for their services.

Laura Kitchen looks at her DAR Award.

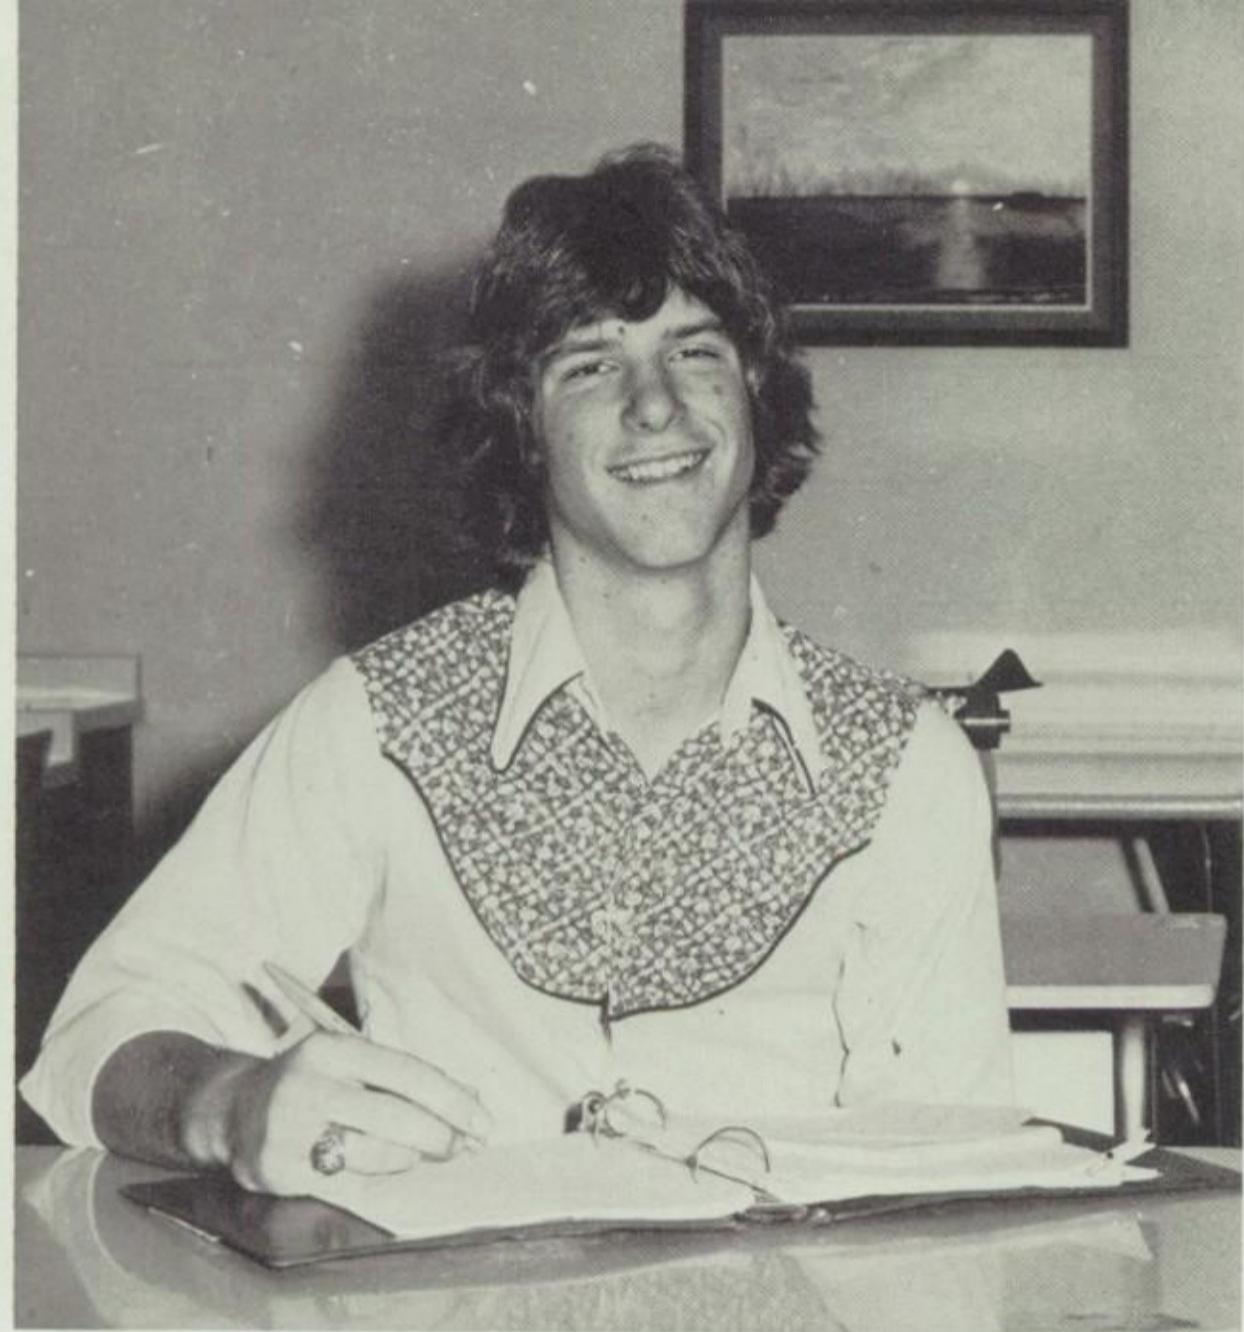

Carl Johnson receives the Rotary Award for participation in many activities.

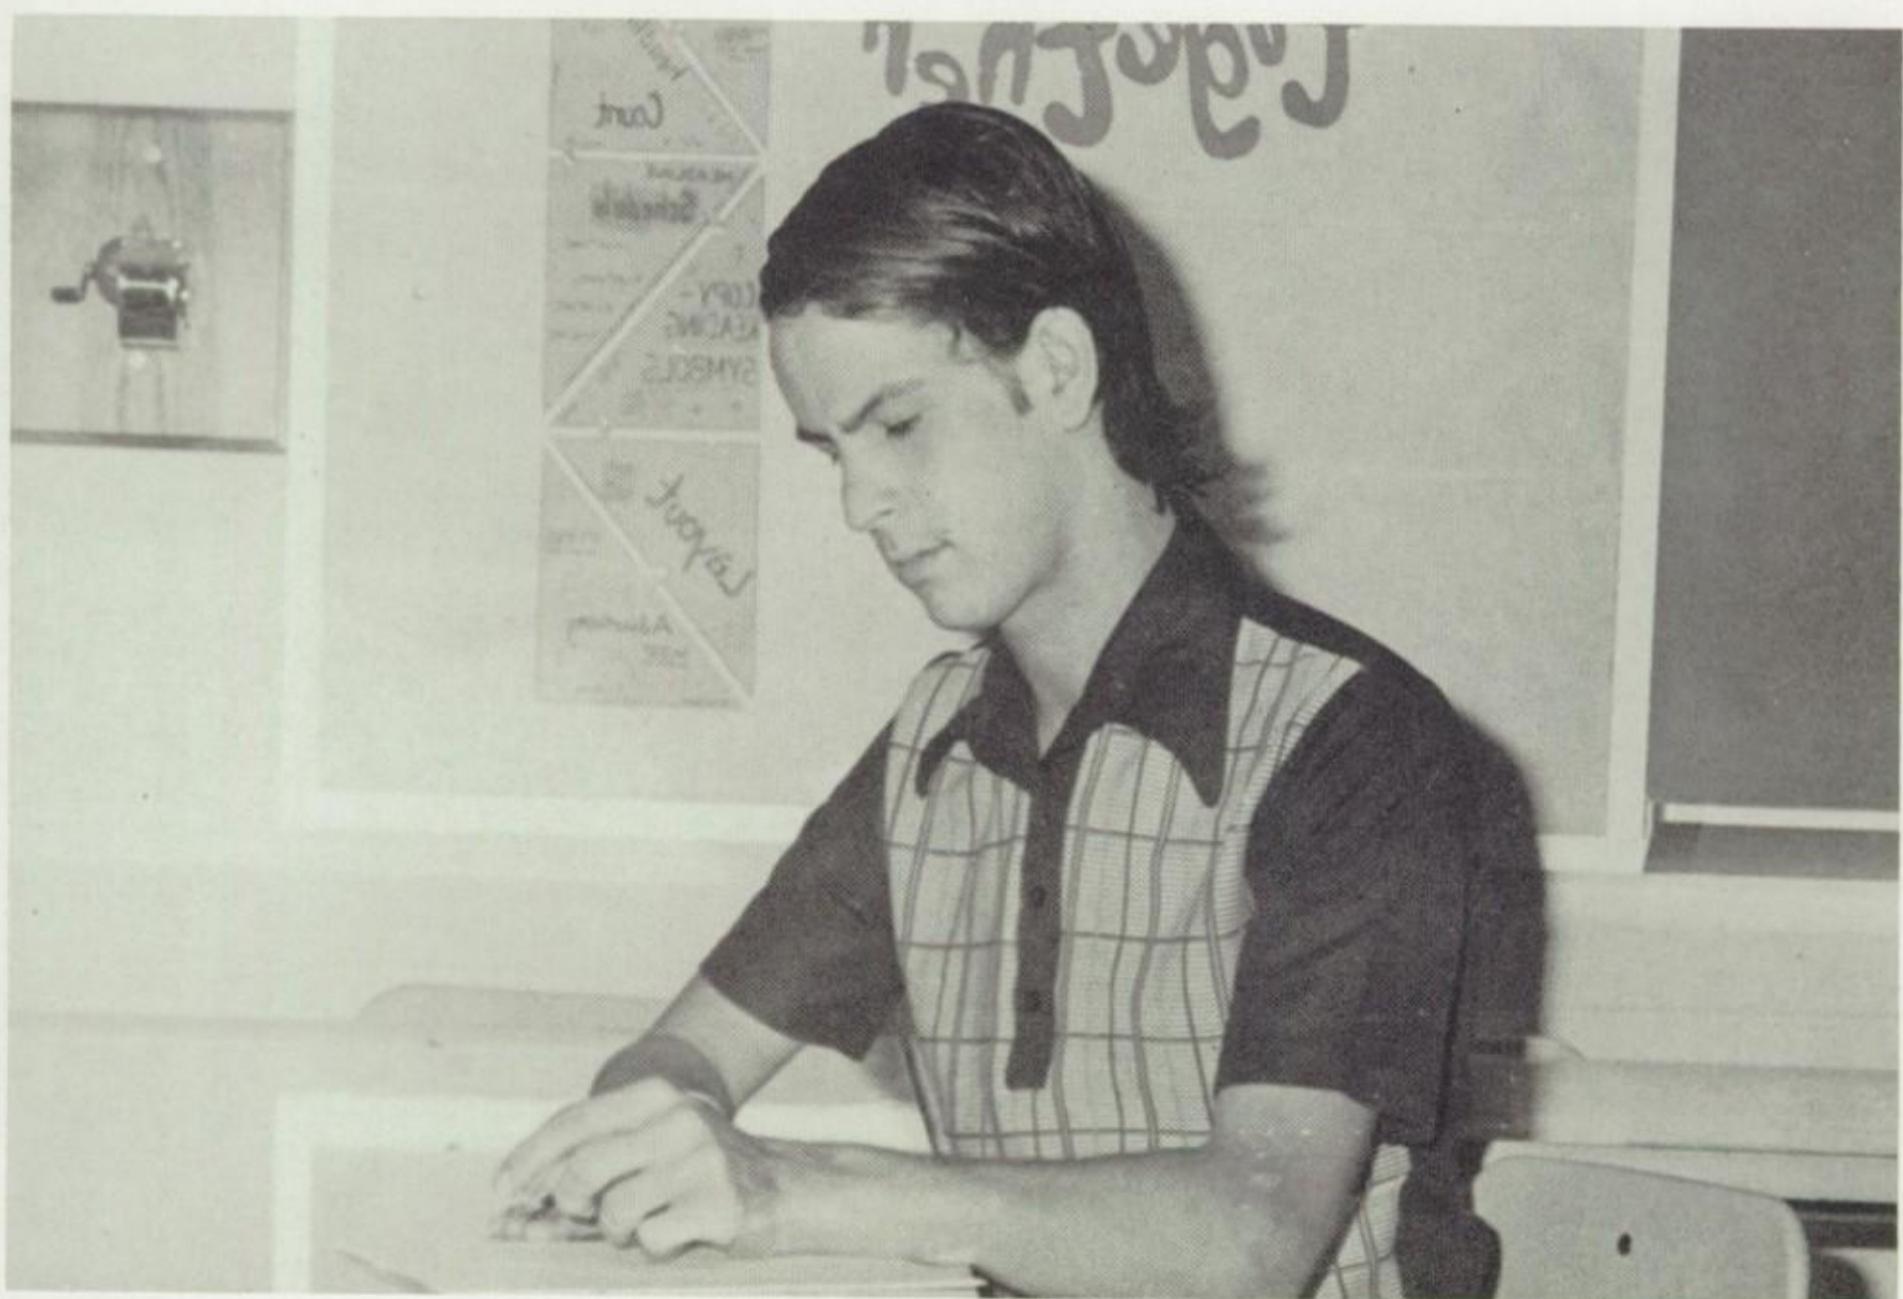

Senior Paul Moreno won first place in the slide rule competition at district level.

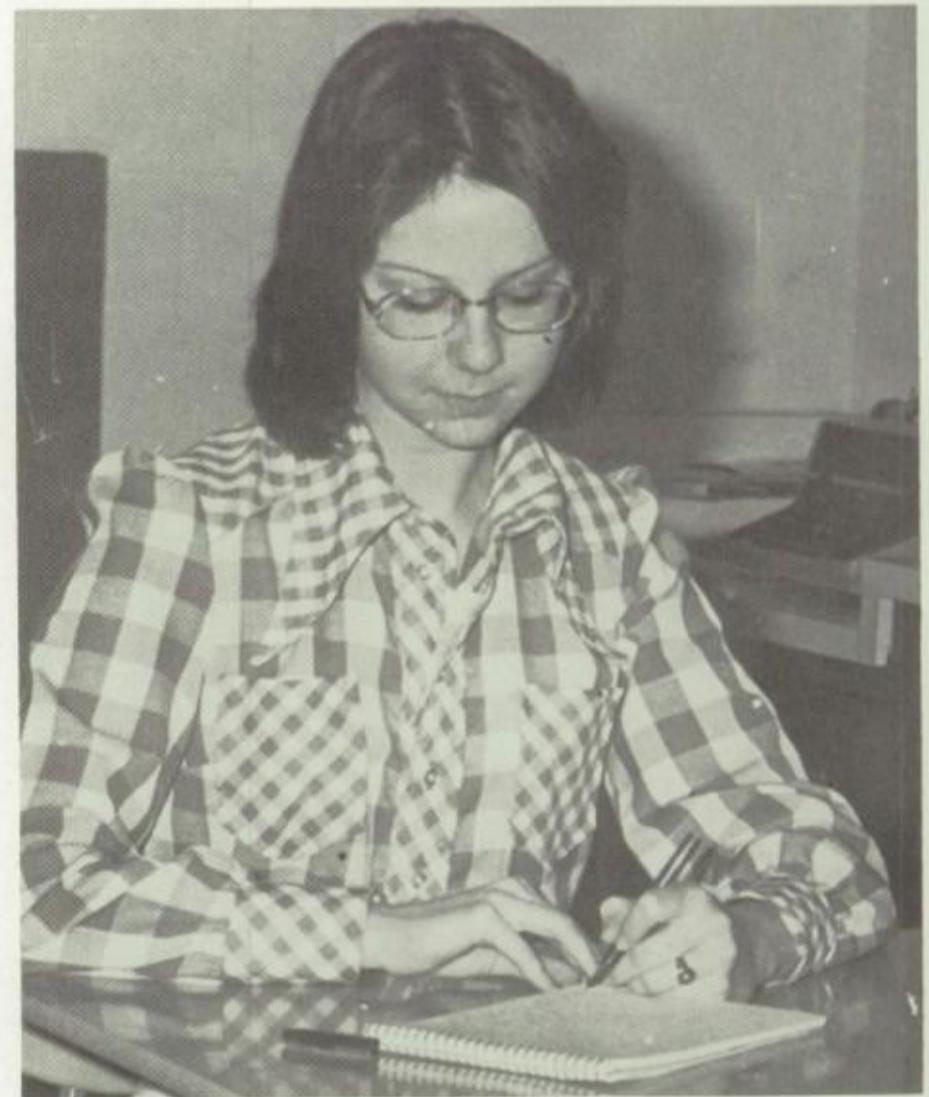

Varsity sports queens are Debbie Duncan, basketball; Jamie Jones and Sharon Reed, track; and Cindy Sikes, baseball.

At district, Tim Bea won second in headlines, third in editorials, and fourth in news.

Eugene Caton placed in the number sense category at the UIL district meet which was held in Grand Prairie on April 12.

At UIL district meet, Cari Hyden won second in shorthand.

In Austin at the UIL state meet, sophomore Debra Evans placed fifth in shotput, while junior Paula Beale won third in shorthand.

Non-district play ends with disappointing tie, loss

Opening play on September 6 against the state ranked Bryan Vikings, Big Sam fell, 21-13. The Texans scored the first time they got the ball and marched 76 yards as Claude Miller scored from two yards out. Bryan scored before halftime, making it 7-7.

Bryan scored two quick touchdowns in the third quarter, making the score 21-7. Going into the fourth quarter, Mark Wood recovered a fumble at the Bryan 46 yard line, and on the next play Miller hit Homer Sargent with a 46 yard touchdown pass. The try for two failed, making the final score Bryan 21, Texans 13.

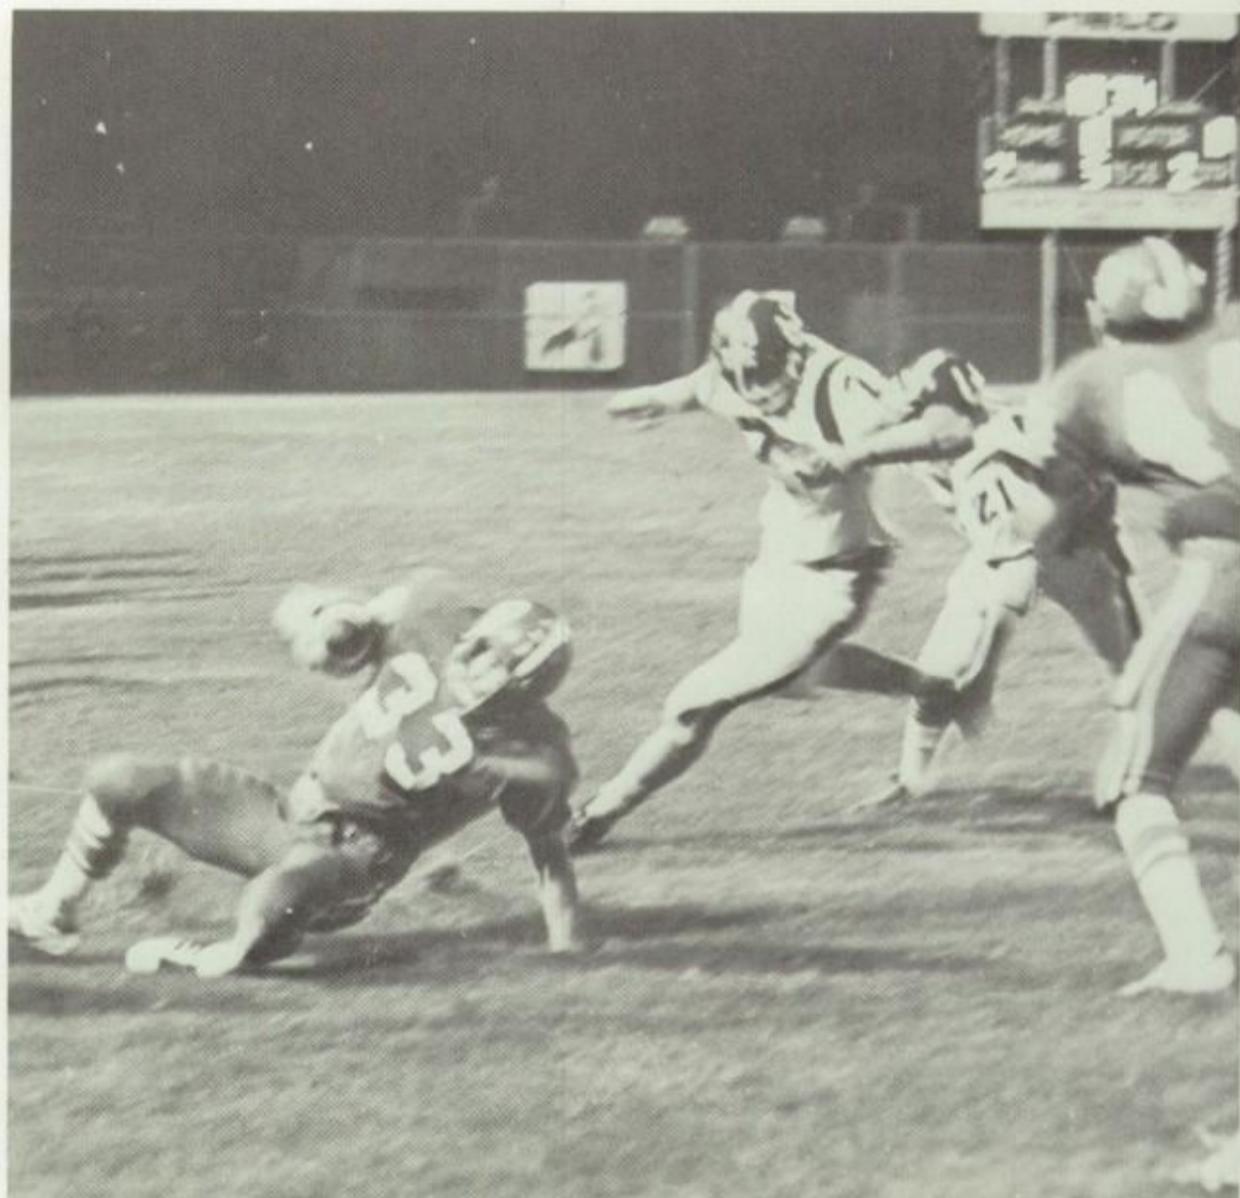

On Friday, September 13 Sam fought L. D. Bell to a 0-0 tie. The game was played under wet conditions which hurt both teams.

Opening district action against MacArthur and cross town rival Arlington High, Sam came out with a 1-1 record. On September 20, playing in a thunderstorm, Big Sam fell to district champ MacArthur, 13-0. The game was a slip and slide affair on a flooded field. Making it two years in a row on September 27, Sam downed the Colts, 17-6 at Wilemon Field. Claude Miller scored the first touchdown on a one yard run. Moments before halftime, Jeff Horton caught a 27 yard touchdown pass from Miller. Miller and Horton combined for Sam's last score with Horton holding and Miller kicking a 27 yard field goal.

Beating Grand Prairie for the first time in the Gopher Bowl, but losing to Irving, put the Texans out of the district race.

Playing the Gophers on October 5, Sam put them in their hole by a 14-0 count. Neither team could score in the first half, but the Texans used big plays to score in the second half.

Steve Luton recovered a fumble on the Gophers' 35 and three plays later Luton scored. Moments later Sam fell on a Gopher fumble to set up another scoring opportunity. Claude Miller hit Jeff Horton with a 25 yard pass.

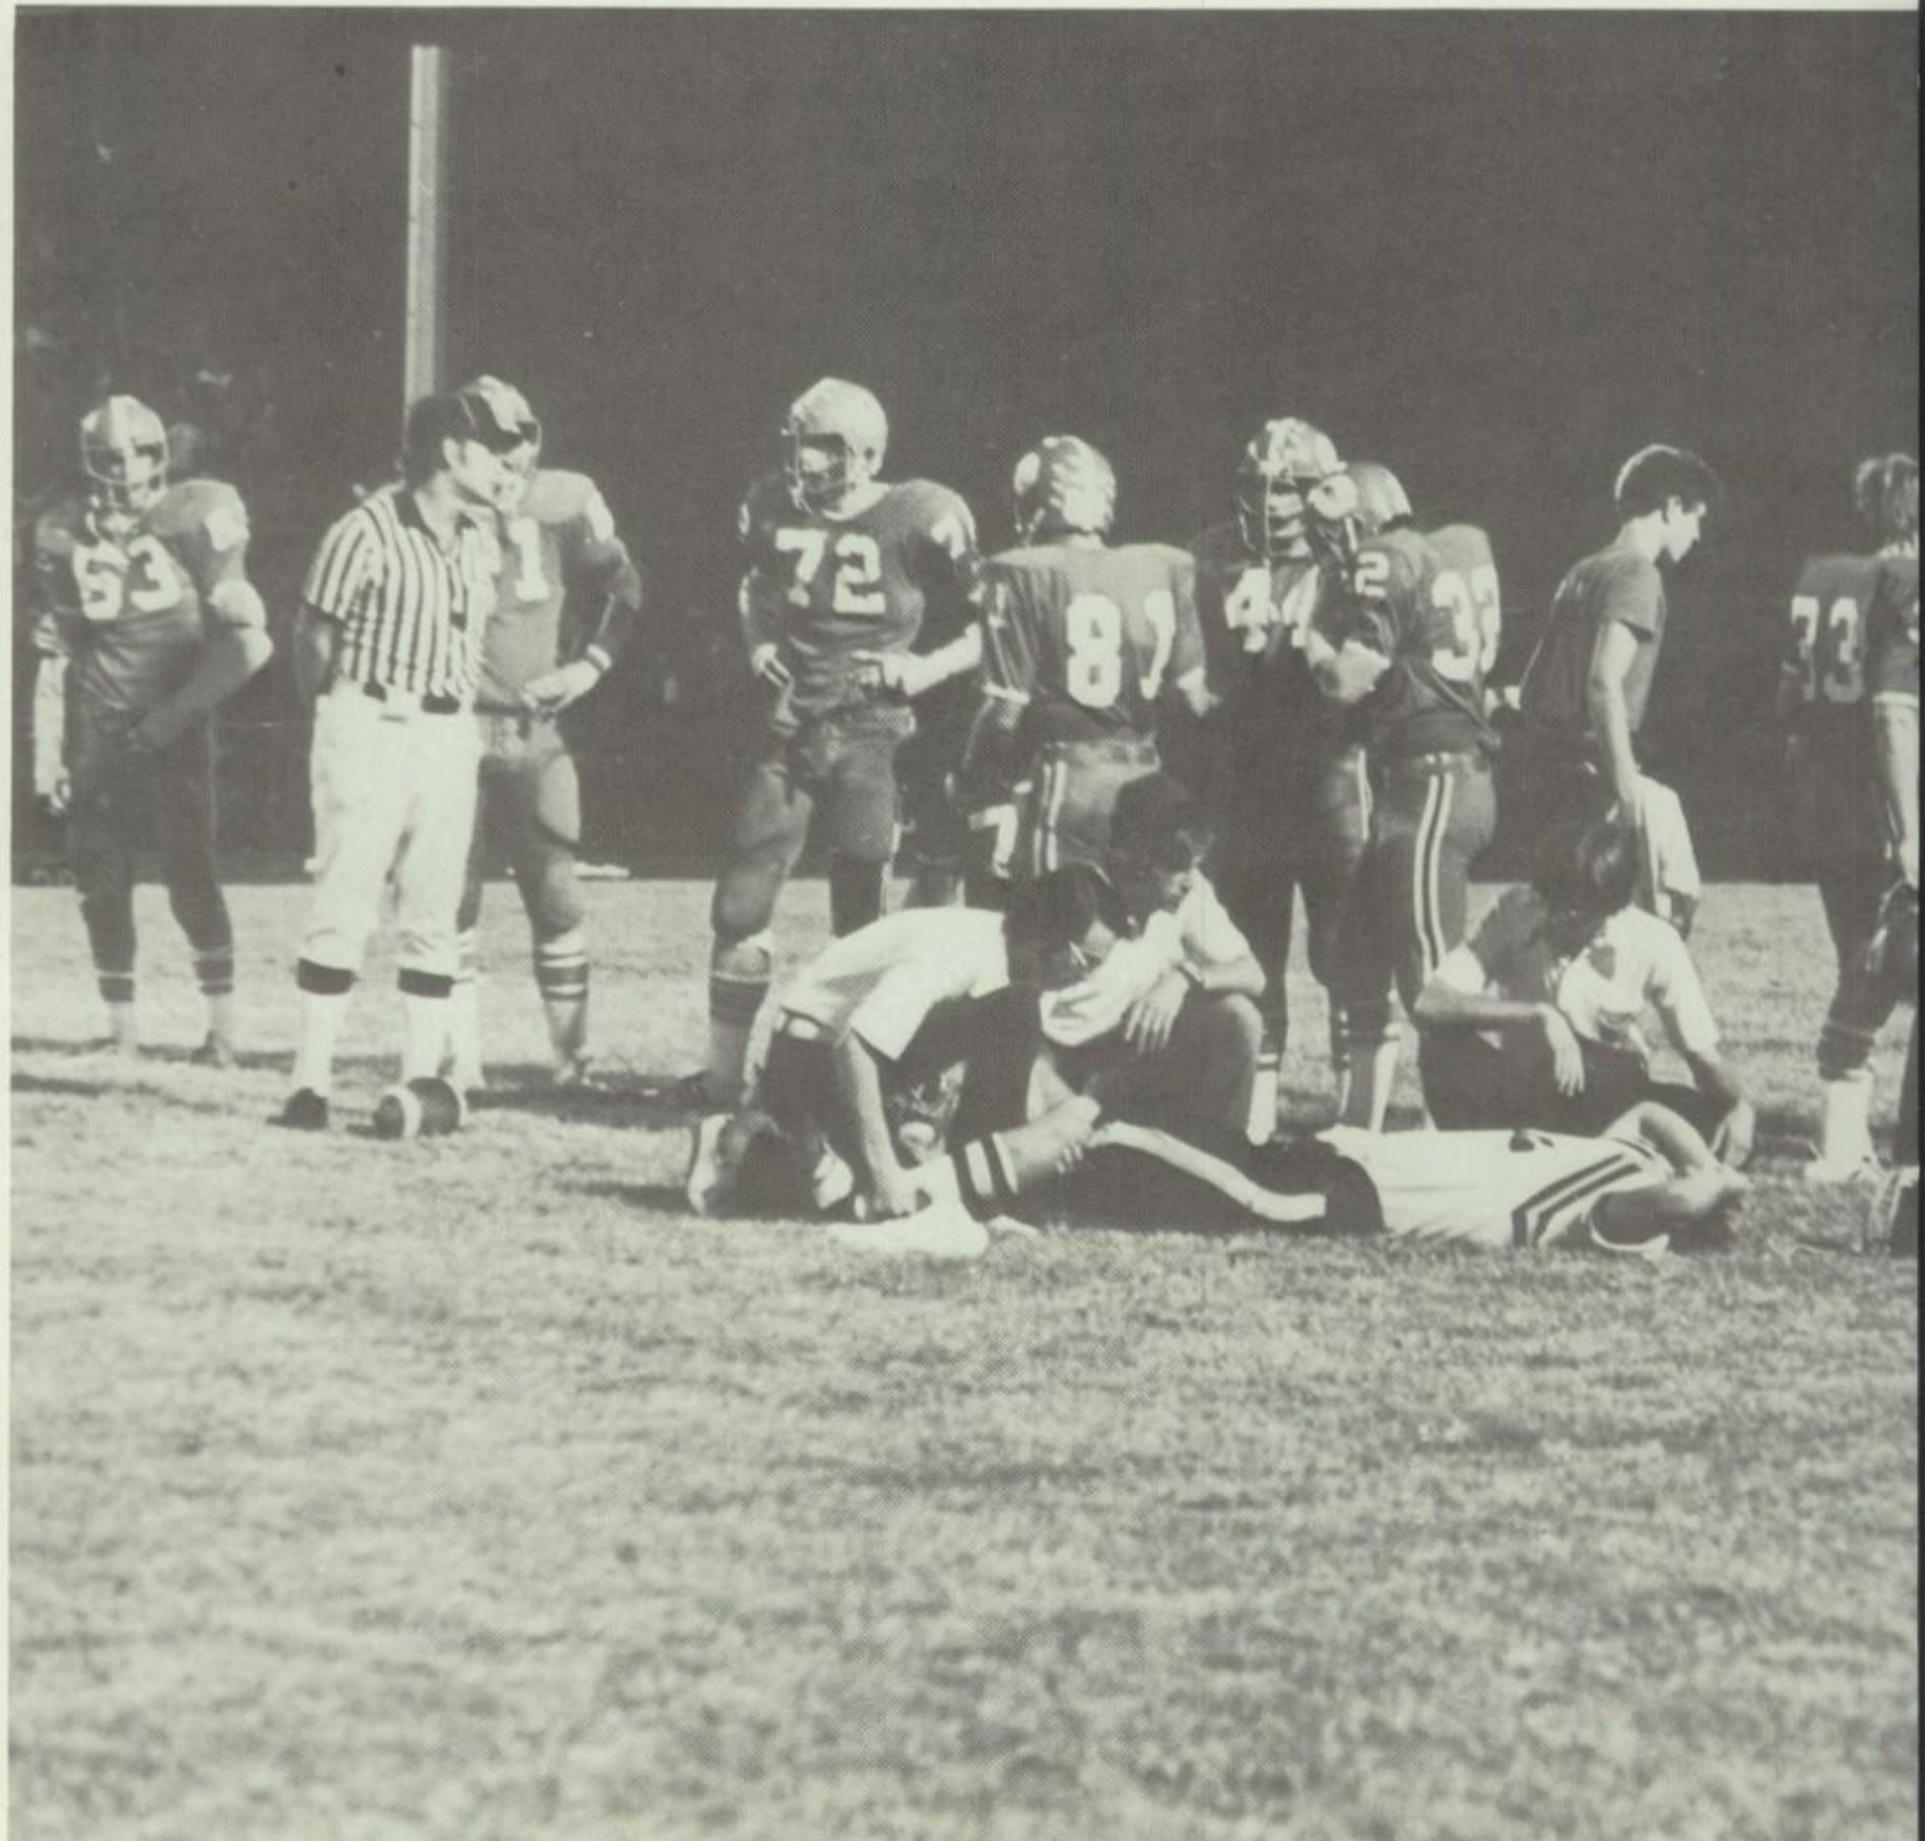

On October 25 Irving beat Sam, 14-8. Irving scored two TD's before Sam got on the board.

Randy Bench passed to Pat Garner for a 35 yard touchdown. Bench in his first game at quarterback completed 5-8 passes for 74 yards and one TD.

(A) Sam's tough defense moves in on Irving's quarterback. (B) Mark Wood runs on the loose against Nimitz.

Hopes fade for winning season

A

Losing two out of the next three games, Sam's hope for a 500 season diminished. Going up against Lamar, Sam could not get an offense going, as they fell to the Vikings, 17-0. Lamar led 10-0 at halftime, as Sam's defense played tough the entire game. In the second half the Texans yielded one more touchdown to make the final count, 17-0 for the Lamar Vikings. Junior Jay Shuler and senior Tim Phillips led the Texans in defensive action. On October 26 Sam decked Highland Park, 20-7 before a Homecoming crowd of 6000. The Texans scored first on a three yard run by Claude Miller. The Texans tallied moments later on a two yard plunge by Mark Wood.

The turning point of the game came seconds before halftime, as fleet-footed Homer Sargent intercepted a Highland Park pass at the Texans' four yard line and raced 96 yards untouched for a touchdown. Miller added his second conversion of the night for a 20-0 halftime score.

The Texans' low point of the season came one week later on November 8, as the Duncanville Panthers beat Sam, 28-19. Sam scored first, but from then on it was all Duncanville. The Panthers scored three touchdowns before halftime to pile up a comfortable 21-7 lead. Sam scored twice in the third quarter with Steve Luton scoring from three yards out. Claude Miller scored from about five yards out to make the score, 21-19. Duncanville then went on a scoring spree, making three touchdowns. Luckily two of these were called back, making the final score, 28-19.

Last minute field goal lifts Sam over Vikings, 22-21

Playing Nimitz in the last game of the year, Sam came out on top in a last second score, 22-21.

Nimitz ran back the opening kickoff to make the score, 7-0. A 53 yard pass from Randy Bench to Mark Wood put Sam on the board.

Nimitz scored in the third quarter putting Sam down, 21-6. The Texans then fought back as they drove 73 yards with Claude Miller passing to Pat Garner for a 14 yard touchdown. With two minutes left, Sam drove with Miller scoring from two yards out making the count, 21-19.

Claude Miller put Sam on top with his school record field goal of 43 yards. Sam held on until time ran out making the final score, 22-21. Jeff Horton caught five passes to lead the district in receiving. Donny Sheffield led the defense as he did all year.

Expanded intramural activities involve 450

Over 450 people were involved in intramural activities during this year. Coach Paul Parker added several new features such as a representative from each homeroom to serve on the council.

The program started out with tennis competitions which were won by James Broussard and Kay Gilbreath. Mrs. Yvonne Davis' homeroom was the next victor with a win in volleyball finals.

Intramural flag football came to a close with the tennis team as the winners. Senior Jamie Jones took first in the free throw. Sophomore Kenny Masters won outstanding male intramural athlete for participating in every possible sport and winning first place in table tennis.

The basketball tournament was won by Gary Smith's team. Baskey's Bombers slugged their way to victory to win in softball.

(A) Mike Mullen, James Broussard, Gary Smith (captain), Gary Hardin, and Tim Bea teamed with Glen Furtardo, Hampton Heger, Larry Danner, and Len Massengale to win the intramural basketball championship. Big Sam recorded a 3-5 record in the first half with wins over Lamar, Duncanville, and Nimitz.

Sam started play, suffering a 65-58 loss to the Gophers of Grand Prairie. Ronnie Newton led the Texans with 25 points. Highland Park was next for the Texans, but Sam fell 68-55. Crosstown rival Arlington was given a scare as Sam led late in the game, but the Colts came back and won, 53-48. Newton again led Sam with 21 points.

Sam was down after the loss to Arlington, as Irving pounded the Texans, 70-35. Sam recorded its first district win over Lamar by a 65-51 score. Paul Riddle was leading scorer with 15 points.

The MacArthur Cards defeated Sam with a 59-50 score. This loss dropped the Texan record to 1-5.

The Texans recorded their second district win with a 62-46 score over Duncanville. Jerry St. Cyr led Sam with 15 points. Ending the first half on a winning note, Sam outshot Nimitz, 65-56. Newton led the Texans again, as he pumped in 26 total points.

Spirits high despite 3-5 record

Finishing the first half of district play with a 3-5 record, Sam's coaches and players looked for better second round action and chances for a district playoff berth. But expectations turned to disappointment as play began.

Sam seemed to be looking past the Gophers as they were overrun by Grand Prairie, 70-54. While holding Highland Park to its lowest point total of the year, Sam also had trouble scoring and lost to the Scots, 59-35. Going up against Arlington, Sam rallied to gain 20 points and take the lead with one minute left, only to be defeated by the Colts, 76-71. Ronnie Newton scored 22 points.

Playing Irving, tough Sam fought to the buzzer, only to come out on the short end of the score, 67-59. Newton again led with 21 points. Big Sam recorded a win in their next game, outshooting Lamar, 69-56. The Texans gave MacArthur all they could handle, before falling to the Cardinals by a 56-50 margin. Duncanville bowed, 65-59 in the Texan second district victory. Newton netted 23 points. In the last game of the year Sam eased by Nimitz, 60-56. Senior Jerry St. Cyr, in his last Varsity game, scored 19 points.

Competing in seven meets, the girls' track team completed their fourth season. One of the best showings for the girls came at the Irving Invitational Meet. Out of the 35 schools competing, Sam ended up placing eighth.

In district competition, the team came in fourth. Debra Evans took second in the shotput and discus. Kelly Davis was right behind Evans, taking third in the same events. The 440 relay team, consisting of Lucille Redrick, Amy Schrickel, Pam Warters, and Carol Easley, came in fifth place. Carol Easley was first in the 220, fourth in triple jump, and sixth in the high jump.

Both Carol Easley and Debra Evans qualified for the regional meet at TWU in Denton. Easley entered the 220 yard dash. Evans won first in shotput and discus.

Evans went to state, which was held in Austin. There the sophomore placed fifth.

Girls play first district season

Girls' basketball came a long way this year. For the first time, the team went into district play. The Texans opened the season with a loss to Duncanville. The next game, the Texans sprang back, defeating Lewisville.

Other teams falling to Sam were Bonham, Denton, and Plano. High scorer during the district season was junior Denise St. Cyr.

Traveling to tournaments gave the girls a lot of experience.

While competing at Slidell, Texas, the team won a third place trophy. Denise St. Cyr was named as an all-tournament forward.

Three members of the varsity team were recognized in district play. Senior Renee St. Cyr was named to the all-district second team. Renee was a forward for the Texans. Receiving honorable mentions were Denise St. Cyr and sophomore Lisa Slate.

Soph swimmer places third

A school funded sport for the first time, swimming involved more than a dozen Sam students.

Sophomore Donna McClure made headlines when she placed third at the state contest. Her time in the 100 yard breaststroke was 1:12.3. Senior Donna Pryor also qualified for the state meet in the 200 yard medley and the 100 yard backstroke. Soph Roger Pryor served as an alternate.

(C) Varsity members are (sitting) Mary Otten, Janet Moore, Vicki Blanton, Jamie Jones, Kim Narramore, Pam Woolsey, (standing) coach Mrs. Sue Ellis, Sharla Miertschin, Laura Kitchen, Jolene Burks, Sandra Gallegos, Christy Braddock, Brenda Blanton, and Leslie Moore.

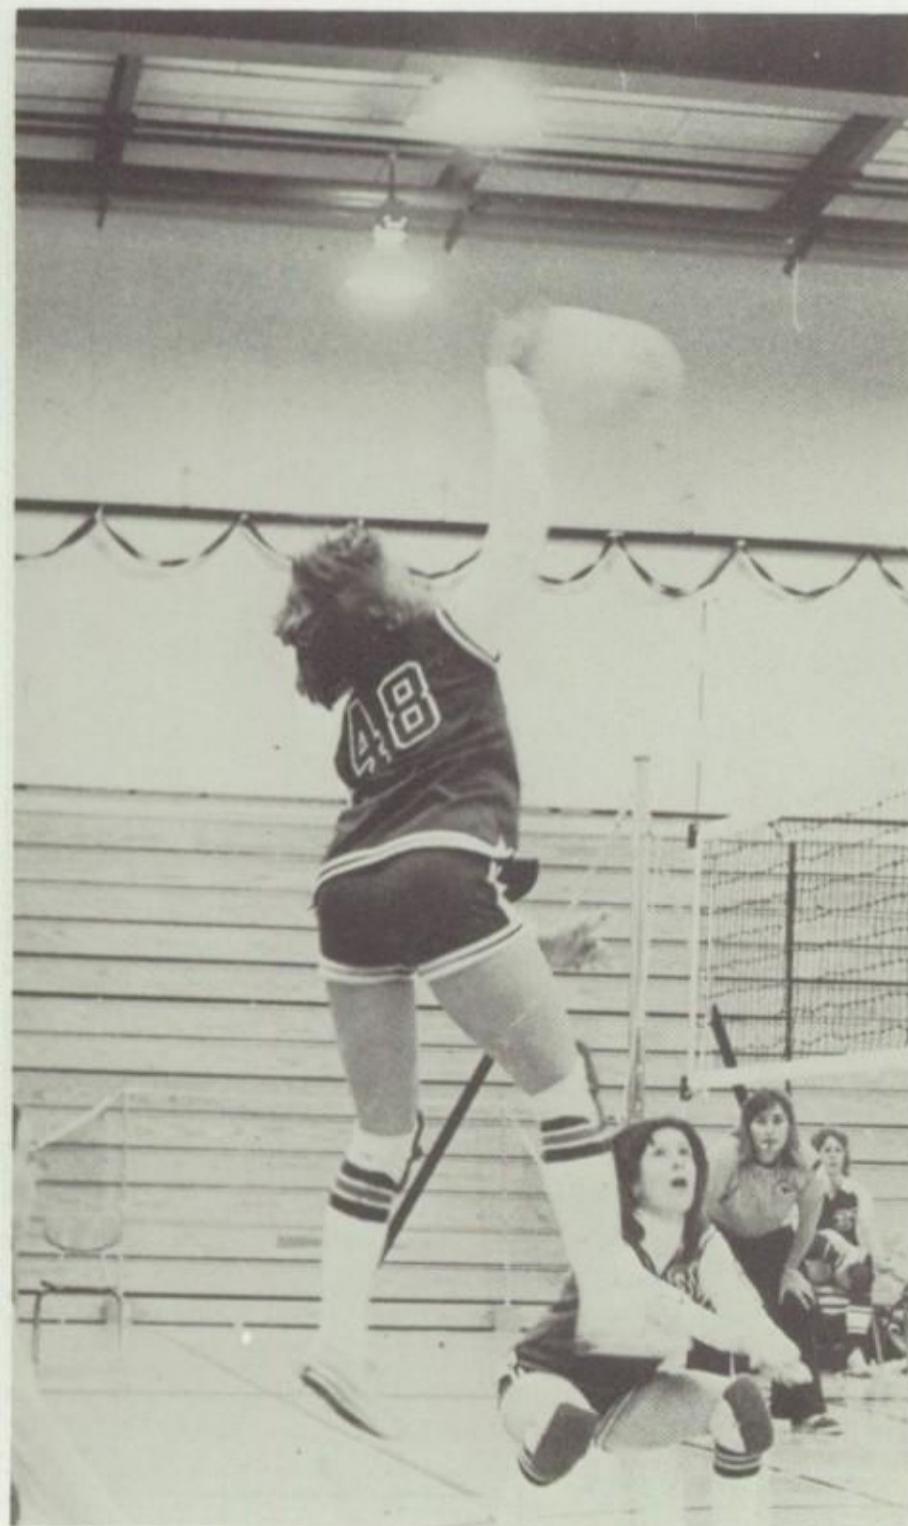

Sam's spikers got down to some serious playing this year. All three teams placed high in district play. The B-team won first, while the varsity and junior varsity took second during overall competition. Ten seniors and two juniors made up the varsity team. The girls played a total of 14 games, winning 11 and losing three. The Texans lost twice to district champs, Nimitz, and once to Arlington High. Lamar, Irving, Grand Prairie, MacArthur, and Duncanville all fell to Sam.

Jolene Burks and Jamie Jones made the all-district team. Also receiving recognition were Laura Kitchen, Janet Moore, and Christy Braddock. Each girl was given an honorable mention.

This season marked the end of volleyball play in the spring. Next year, due to a change in rules, the girls will start competing during the fall. Mrs. Sue Ellis will again be coach.

"Studying until my poor eyes won't stay open . . . having to give up going running around with friends. Hey, can anyone realize what I do to get good grades?"

It took a special person to belong to the National Honor Society. This club was set up especially for those with the ability to learn plus study and come out ahead gradewise.

Members of the NHS were willing to help those who were interested in their service. The club began tutoring students who wanted pointers on studying.

Taking notes and reading weren't all NHS'ers did. Poster parties, Teacher Appreciation day, and a Homecoming reception were some of the club's events.

For students lucky enough to be curious, the AFS proved to be a worthwhile discovery. Those who got involved were sure to be busy.

To start the school year off fantastically, an 'ole fashioned' weiner roast was held by the club. Quick to see a good thing, the AFS kept the party spirit alive. The group went on to have a Christmas party and a picnic in the spring.

The German Club got a first hand account of the country's activities. Members traveled to the Wurstfest in New Braunfels and the TAGS Convention.

Latin Clubbers went American style, having a wiener roast.

PTSA involves Sam students

"I give up. I've tried every word, and it just doesn't make sense. What in the world is PTSA?"

PTSA was a unique organization involving parents, teachers, and students. We, at Sam, were the only school to include students.

Two PTSA sponsored open houses gave everyone a chance to look at the school. An awareness lecture on alcoholism was given by the club. The program was presented to all interested.

For seniors only, the PTSA offered a night at Six Flags. A scholarship and reception were also given to the upperclassmen.

Hard work proves worthwhile

"No. It can't be. You mean to tell me that I have to take the affirmative side for that? I've heard of hard debate topics, but this is really ridiculous!" Debating and giving oratories and dramatic interpretations were all talents belonging to those in NFL. Membership in the club was obtained through points earned in forensic activities. The lost sleep and meals due to preparation for tournaments proved worthwhile for members.

Sherrie Phillips received the honor of a double ruby. She accumulated 600 points through the hundreds of debates and contests she was involved in.

Competing at district and state levels, Julie Osburn placed second for the dramatic interpretations she presented.

Marking the third year for a Sam representative to go to nationals, Carl Johnson won at state in original oratory. Group projects included PTA programs and presentations for the local civic clubs.

The Thespians went all out again in sponsoring the Texan Tournament. About 40 schools came to Sam and participated.

Nothing can keep the Tex-Annes or their spirit down

"Neither rain, nor sleet, nor gloom of night can keep our Tex-Annes from smiling bright!" Somehow the weather couldn't get the drill team down. Girls practiced and performed through everything from rain to the cold. Captain Rhonda Bonds and the eight lieutenants put together the group's weekly routines. Each Monday a dance was taught to the 64 members. Later in the week, try-outs were held, and from those the best girls were chosen to perform at the game.

Marching also in the Fourth of July parade, the Tex-Annes received a second place trophy.

Band divides into smaller, more specialized groups

"Ah, but Mr. Rober, don't you think some of Rick Wakeman's music would add a little spice to this week's halftime routine?"

No matter what type of music was played by our many bands, it was sure to be good. Tunes from classical to Chicago became part of the Big Sam sound. The four main bands were the Marching Band, Concert Band, Stage Band, and Super Band. Six smaller groups branched off from Super Band to concentrate their efforts in just one particular type of music. The bands put a lot of time into contests, among other things. Excellent and good ratings were earned again this year as in the past. Castleberry, UIL, and Sam Houston State University were contests in which the band participated. Band students began working for the much needed vacation they plan to take next year. The kids helped All-State Insurance with filing. The money made will go toward the bicentennial trip.

Another fund raiser was the sale of Texan mugs. These were sold in the middle of the year.

Elementary schools were blessed with performances from Sam musicians. Both the Stage and Super Bands gave concerts.

Late night and early morning practices were second nature for getting halftime shows perfected. Leading the Marching Band was senior drum major Len Massengale. Len was aided by junior drum major Pat Daugherty.

To finish the year off right, band members had a banquet in May.

"Give each of the teachers an apple?" Now that sounds a little corny! But when you think about it, it's a real nice thing to do!" And so members of the Cherokee FHA became expert apple pickers. Because of both of Sam's FHA's, faculty members munched and crunched and began the day better.

Always keeping up with what's going on, the Cherokee FHA sent delegates to district and state meetings. Jamie Jones went to both functions. Vickie Haney attended state with Jamie.

"Oh, don't worry. I'll cut your hair like a professional. I've been taking cosmetology at school all year, remember!"

Six training classes made up the VICA organization. For three hours a day students in auto body, auto mechanics, building trades, cosmetology, and radio and TV worked to perfect their skills. The other part of VICA, ICT, met for only one hour and then to work for their training.

Students got a chance to see how good their work really was at district competition. Forty five members won awards at the contest. The winners advanced to state, held at Houston.

Newcomers Club provides guidance, friendship

"What a bummer. It must be terrible coming to a new school, and not knowing anyone. There's got to be something we can do so new students will enjoy Sam."

Under Mrs. Tommie Williams' direction, a Newcomers Club was organized. The club's goal was to help new students feel at home.

Members took newcomers out to lunch, to school activities, and showed them the local hangouts.

So new Texans wouldn't have the hassle of finding classes, members gave them a tour of Sam.

In January, the club held a dance for everyone. Those new to the school were admitted free.

(A) Sam students enjoy the music at a dance sponsored by the Newcomers Club. (B) Senior members, Jan Bellomy and Jeff Horton, were chosen Mr. and Miss Hospitality by the club and its sponsor, Mrs. Williams.

Photography depicts experiences

"Come off it. Stop worrying. This picture is sure to turn out!"

Always having faith in themselves, photographers took pictures for both journalism staffs. Advice and headaches seemed to burden photographers.

Placing in local contests were Liz Hayes, Randal McKinney, Mike Mullen, and James Thornton.

"Did she say you take a right on Mitchell, then a left, then a right? Or was it two lefts, then a right? Wow, by the time we get there they'll have finished and gone to the next person's house!"

A progressive dinner got the year off for Quill and Scroll members. Those in the club were staffers who earned points through attending conferences, workshops, and winning awards.

Three members were part of Honor Quill and Scroll. These were Nancy Bresnahan, Carolee Gathany, and Charlotte Garner.

The all-city Quill and Scroll banquet ended the year for the club. Awards for the best material in newspaper and annual were presented. Mr. Ken Kennamer served as guest speaker.

PRETENDING THAT THEY have received parts in the choir musical are seniors Mark Freeman, Tara Hutchinson, Bryant Johnson and Judy Adams. Tryouts for the "Music Man" have been scheduled for March 31 - April 2 from 3:30 to 8:30 each afternoon. Any student who wishes to try out for one of the approximately 70 parts should attend the sessions after school in the choir room.

Choir tryouts set for after Easter

Auditions for the Choir Department's musical, "Music Man," will be held immediately following the Easter holidays. Open to all students, these tryouts will begin at 3:30 each afternoon, March 31-April 2 in the choir room.

The cast, which will consist of approximately 70 parts, will be announced April 3.

Two children's parts, a boy and a girl, will also be offered. Children auditioning for these roles should be in either the fifth, sixth or seventh grade and look about nine years old, Mr. Louis Harris, director of the program, stated.

Any child fitting the qualifications is invited to try out. Students who are interested in doing technical work, lights, costumes, microphones, etc., and other jobs behind the scenes should sign up during tryout days.

Rehearsals for the musical will start immediately after the announcement of the cast.

Scenes and accepts, which are due into the February, are still being checked out. They can be picked up in the choir office.

Musical performances will be May 13, 14 and 17 at 8 p.m. A matinee performance will also be presented on May 17 at 2 p.m.

"Music Man" is the story of a scoundrel who goes to a small town in Iowa to make a lot of money. He convinces the townspeople that he is starting a city band and sells them instruments and uniforms. However, complications arise and he is forced to change his mind about cheating the townspeople.

Last year's musical, "South Pacific," starred seniors Julie Osburn, Carl Johnson and Ronnie Quinde, along with '74 graduates Emily Spradl and Richard McDonald.

During its four performances, "South Pacific" drew approximately 2,300 people and made more than $250.

Paul Moreno will enter side in competition.

Sophomore Steve Flores and Pauline Uzze are entered in spelling. In the math contests, senior Eugene Caton will participate in number sense and senior the competition will advance to regional contests to be held April 29. Regional winners will compete at the state level.

District teams entered at the district level are senior Sherrie Phillips and junior, Tyrene Calhoun and juniors Rock Demarais and James Broussard.

Senior Carl Johnson is the only entry from Sam in the informative speaking competition. In poetry interpretation, seniors Julie Osburn and Ronnie Quinde will compete along with junior Linda Lovre.

In prose, juniors Sara Shull and Terry Bradges and sophomore Rhonda Owsley will enter. Senior Charlotte Garner and junior Tim

Students chosen to enter UIL

Saturday, April 12, 26 Sam Houston students will participate in University Interscholastic League contests.

Schools from District 7-4A will enter the Spring Literary Events which will be held at Grand Prairie High School.

Competitors will be given time to practice after the Easter holidays.

All students placing first in district competition will advance to regional contests to be held April 29. Regional winners will compete at the state level.

District teams entered at the district level are senior Sherrie Phillips and junior, Tyrene Calhoun and juniors Rock Demarais and James Broussard.

The program began at 7:30 and cost $2 a person.

Pollard as this year's most promising country newcomer in the Buddy Awards Poll. Ray first became well-known after writing "Red Neck Mother," the song made famous by Jerry Jeff Walker.

Growing up in Oak Cliff, Ray graduated from Adamson High School. This was the same school that country stars

Michael Murphy and R.W. Stevenson attended. While going to college at NTSU in Denton, he started his first band, Soon the group went on the road, traveling to New Mexico.

Here they broke up and Ray returned to Texas.

Next he recruited his present back up band, the Cowboy Twinkies.

Having Ray perform for Texans was the idea of Principal B.H. Remmey.

Helping to organize the event was Mike Smith, a Sam ex and an employee of KAMC radio.

Drawing a near-capacity crowd, this was Ray's first high school concert. He commented, "I really liked it and it was a lot of fun. It wasn't a job at all. I didn't know what to expect from the crowd but they were very hip. It wasn't like a college or club crowd, I mean these were 16-18 year old kids and they really listened."

RAY WYLIE HUBBARD, star in the progressive country music field was in concert March 18 before a near capacity crowd at Sam

Five enter board race

Two of the seven members of the Arlington School Board are up for re-election on April 5 when local citizens will make their choices for Places 6 and 7.

Five residents filed for the election before the March 6 deadline. These include Dr. Truett C. Boiles, the current board president, running against Mrs. Kay Tidwell.

Competing for Place 7 will be the incumbent Mrs. Christine Garner; Rock Fulton, a UTA sophomore government major, and Dawson Bryant, a 35 year old attorney.

Holding regular meetings the first Tuesday of every month, the board will next meet on April 1. Another meeting is scheduled for April 7. Here any new members will be indicated.

Holding places 1-5 are current board members Mr. Phil McGahey, Mr. Elwood Poore, Mr. Bill Bordurant, Mr. Dan Dugay and Dr. J.M. Favell.

'Talk' staff spreads news

"How do I write a story about something that hasn't happened yet?" was a familiar complaint heard many times in the news room.

Seventeen staffers produced 14 papers including a final 16 page senior edition in May.

Always busy with deadlines, staff members had some fun times, too. Breakfasts at IHOP and Sambo's, a pixie party, the Quill and Scroll progressive dinner and banquet, and softball games with Lamar and the Cherokee Staff highlighted the staff's year.

Representing Texans Talk, staffers attended workshops at TWU in Denton and UT in Austin. A trip to the ad clinic at TCU and visits with media personnel at SMU and UTA finished the year.

Carolyn Vaughn won the title of best staffer at the journalism banquet. Others receiving some recognition were Carolee Gathany for best column, Fred Kurz for sports, Charlotte Garner for editorials, James Broussard for interpretative news, and Tim Bea for features, interpretative news, and news.

Principal shows spirit

"We've got the best spirit!
The kids here at Sam are the greatest! We'll always be #1!"

Never losing faith in Sam, Mr.
Bud Remynse, principal, could be counted on to put in a good word.
Always involved, he was the chief
Texan actor, hamming up parts from a Texorcist to Santa Claus.

What did we think of him? Well, as the slogan goes, "When you say Bud, you've said it all."

(A) Often busy on the phone, Mr.

Jobs show versatility

"Wow! was that ever close. At least that pass wasn't for me!"

Coping with discipline problems and checking absentees were only parts of the duties of our deans and vice-principals.

Dean of girls Mrs. Tommie Williams helped form a club for newcomers. Holding positions of dean of boys and vice-principal was Mr. Monroe Bicknell. He also registered our "men" for the draft. Another vice-principal, Mr. G. A. Glenn, aided the Student Congress in making ideas work.

Counselors aid students with college, career plans

"I just can't hack this class anymore. Guess I'll have to talk to my counselor and try again."

Luckily, the students of Sam were blessed with four counselors. Mrs. Marjean Kitts helped those whose last names began with A-D. Trying to clear up things for E-K students was Mr. James Warren. Helping those with L-R names was Mrs. Betty Whitaker. Working with the S-Z people was Mrs. Emily Lunday.

Our counselors worked in other ways for the kids. Mrs. Kitts was one of the sponsors for the AFS. Those in the NHS were aided by Mrs. Whitaker. Mrs. Lunday planned PTSA programs.

All of our counselors were busy getting together programs for college-minded students. They administered required entrance exams. A college night, held at Lamar, gave us the chance to hear from representatives of different universities.

Six secretaries keep daily school business organized

"Who would you guess knows most about goings on at Sam? Give up? Well, the secretaries rank right there in the top 10!"

Being a secretary in a school this size was no easy chore. In addition to handling records and keeping financial reports, the six secretaries made thousands of phone calls about absences and delinquent grades.

Secretaries got more than their share of student problems and always lent a helping hand.

(A) Mrs. Audine Whitten, secretary to the principal, calls a company to confirm an order. (B) Mrs. Doris Brazzil and Mrs. Dorothy Welton, also secretaries, talk over the daily attendance records. "This is crazy. I'll never be able to find anything out about the problems of Afghanistan!"

Whenever we had trouble finding facts for one of those fun (?) reports, our librarians would help. They were Mrs. Louise Clark and Mrs. Jimmie Russell.

If going to the library didn't get you out of class, being sick might. Mrs. Pat Edney and Mrs. JoAnn Owens listened to many mysterious diseases each day.

Cafeteria lines compete with off-campus facilities

"Oh no, look what they're giving us today. Well, it smells all right; that's encouraging!"

Having to hear over 950 comments like this daily, the cafeteria ladies were always good-natured. They did their best at having our favorite foods prepared and ready for us to "chow down" on. Snack bar or lunch tray foods sounded good after studying.

(A) Mrs. Goldie Vaughn figures up the daily total. (B) The cafeteria ladies are Mrs. Sylvia Cobb, Mrs. Otila Alcala, Mrs. Marge Scholz, Mrs. Irene Neal, Mrs. Sally Williams, Mrs. Carlene Thomas, Mrs. Olga Flak, Mrs. Goldie Vaughn, Mrs. Julia Zink, Mrs. Patsy Allen, Mrs. Marjorie Knowles.

English allows versatility

"My fingers will never be the same! Working on this English theme gives me writer's cramp."

Seniors had to take 12 weeks of regular English, then were given choices to fill the other quarters. Courses were visual literacy, science fiction, future shock, and search of self.

Emphasized in junior classes were research, theme writing, and American literature.

Sophomores explored all different forms of literature.

Languages, cultures explored

"Hola . . . ; Que Pasa? . . . ¿ Asi piensas? . . . ¿ Que hora es?"

Sound like Greek? Well, it's only Spanish. Spanish was one of four languages offered with other possibilities being Latin, French, and German. Curious students struggled to speak and write a new language.

At times it seemed an endless hassle of grammar or vocabulary. Films broke the study monotony.

"I'm going to stay single forever. That's the way to live!"

Despite big talk like this, hundreds signed up for home economics classes.

Family living prepared seniors for life and marriage. Making the most of what you have was taught in home management. Home furnishing classes gave the basics on creating an attractive house. For those interested in children, child development gave insights to behavior and emotions. Homemaking I, II, and III offered general tips.

"Whew! Finally, I can have a break and go into a class I enjoy."

The many liberal arts courses gave us a chance to try various things. Speech, drama, and debate classes practiced their techniques at tournaments. Students in photography and journalism learned fine points of all media and put together the newspaper and annual. The numerous bands and choirs were taught theory and performed at civic and school functions. Art courses ranged from painting to jewelry making and pottery.

All levels offered in math

"I can feel it already; I'm bound to be another Einstein!"

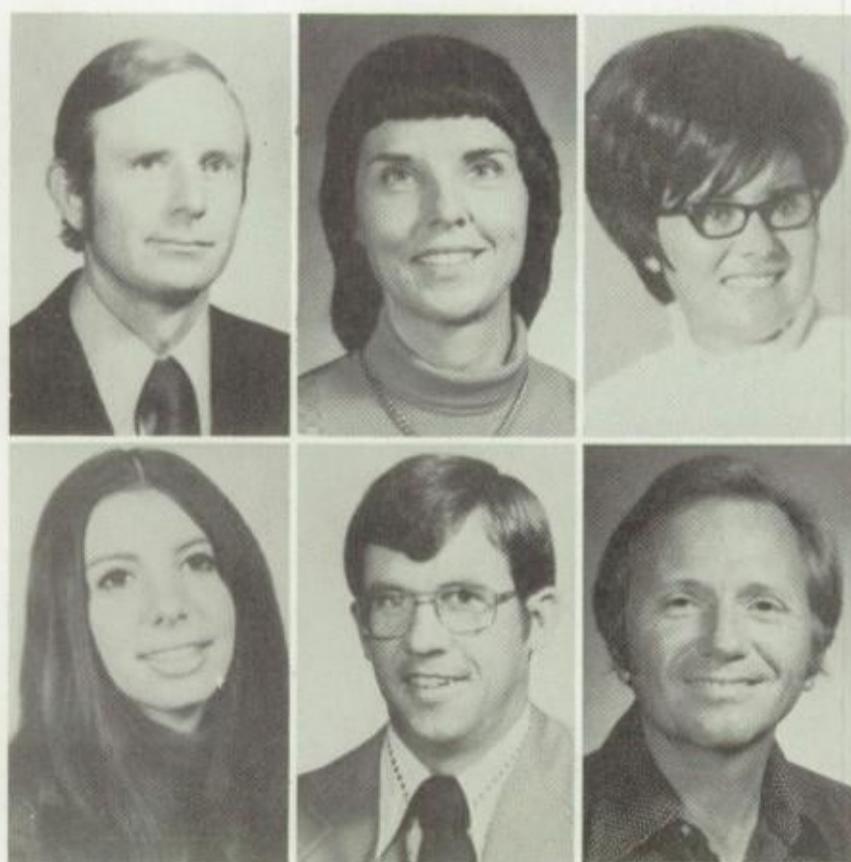

Our Math Department rallied feelings like this in some kids. Algebra, calculus, elementary analysis, geometry, man made world, and trigonometry were the math classes offered. Of course, those who weren't quite up to that could always take introductory courses. Besides doing the usual work, the algebra classes held a contest in the fall. When spring came around, those taking geometry held competition.

"I won't leave this dressing room. My boyfriend will see me!"
After listening to excuses and complaints, physical ed coaches tried pleasing all. Besides old faithful P.E. activities of basketball, volleyball, softball, track, and tennis, badminton, archery, golf, folk dancing, riflery, and table tennis were introduced to provide more intramurals.

Special P.E. classes were started to concentrate on specific sports. The drill team, meeting every morning, was also a part of the curriculum. Girls worked on dances for the games.

"Finally, a dream come true. I have perfected a remedy for the 'going-to-school-blahs!' One sip and no one will mind coming!"

Well, possibly it is a little farfetched, but students began to mix, experiment, and surprise themselves. They were working through observation and trial and error to discover what was unknown to them.

Shop courses build useful skills

"Wait till dad sees this grade. He's sure to let me work on his Lincoln Continental now!"

We were given an opportunity to work with our hands during shop classes. We tested our skills in building trades, wood and metal shops, power mechanics, auto body, auto mechanics, radio and T.V., cosmetology, and drafting.

The experience we gained during class gave us confidence in a skill. This confidence would help us when looking for a job.

Past sheds light on present

"Just how did the world get in this state? How can we help?"

Questions like these were hopefully answered in social science rooms. World situations of the past and present were discussed in world history, world geography, and American history. Civics classes were centered around our government.

Sociology and psychology kids looked at world problems and tried to figure them out.

All of the courses informed students of the past. The facts were then related to present day problems. Discussions and group work made classes easier.

If you were interested in business courses, Sam had plenty to choose from. The classes varied from typing and shorthand to bookkeeping, data processing and clerical practice. General business was also offered as a basic introductory course.

College-bound students found typing beneficial also. It would be handy for papers.

AN AMERICAN

the quarter-pound sandwich that's deliciously different. Chick-fil-A.

Chick-fil-A's have delighted folks for over a decade with their tender, boneless, skinless, golden-brown goodness. They're pressure-fried in peanut oil to eliminate both unappetizing greasiness and unnecessary calories—and seasoned to perfection with a mixture of secret ingredients.

And for tasty variety, Chick-fil-A stores serve 1 and 2-piece box dinners, 5-piece barns, cold chicken salad plates, spicy Chick-N-Q sandwiches, homestyle salads, "made-from-scratch" fresh lemon icebox pie and old-fashioned freezer-fresh vanilla "ice dream."

Chick-fil-A is the most deliciously different quarter-pound sandwich treat in the whole wide hamburger-crazy world. No wonder it's become such an overwhelming American favorite!

A BEAUTIFUL CHURCH

The church is not the building; it is the people. The real church is people who are dedicated, cleansed, and committed — a people whose devotions are Christ centered. They, in a word, are Christians. They are people seeking to honor Christ in their lives.

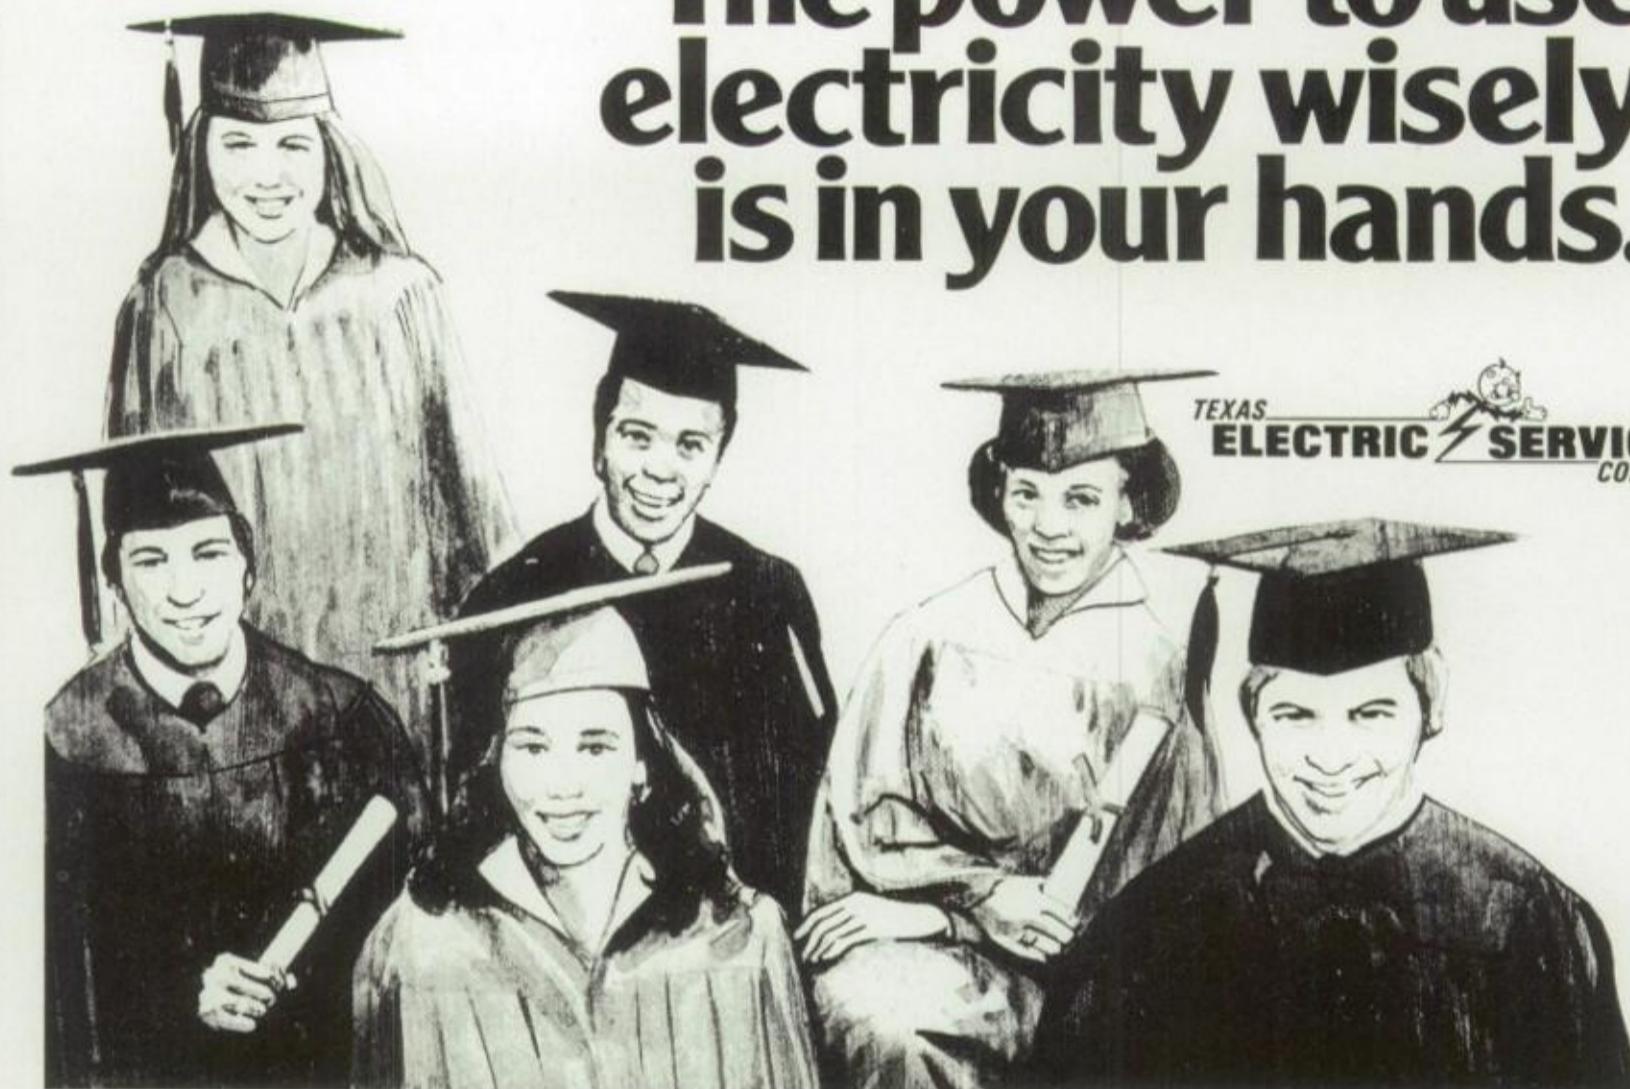

The church is beautiful, not in proportion to the architectural quality of its meeting place, but in proportion to the spiritual quality of its members' lives. The church that meets in a beautiful building is fortunate, but the church composed of people who are living beautiful lives is blessed beyond measure.

The Cherokee Staff would like to thank the many people who helped us during the year:

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Pendleton for studio and color pictures

Mr. B. H. Remynse
for his support and encouragement

Mrs. Audine Whitten
for her help with financial matters

Mr. Bob Hurt
for sports team pictures

Mrs. Dorothy Thompson and Collins Park Florist
for donating the greenery for the Assembly

Work, play important parts of annual staffers' lives

"What can we celebrate today? I forgot to eat breakfast, and I'm starving. Someone just has to go get some doughnuts before I die."

Celebrating occasions from Honest Abe's birthday to meeting a deadline, we combined an equal amount of hard work and play.

September 4 we visited Taylor Publishing Company to learn more about how our book is produced. A few of us attended a workshop at TCU, September 14. October 25 we made our fateful trip to Lamar to pay off our bet by singing their fight song. We attended another workshop in Denton on December 6.

We combined our efforts with the Texans Talk Staff to collect and prepare items to take to the state mental hospital at Terrell. Christmas time brought a fun mixer with strange presents and little pixies. We shared our good times with the newspaper staff.

On March 21 we all piled into the bus for a trip to Austin. April 10 was the date of our annual Quill and Scroll banquet. Bonnie Sims was named best yearbook staffer. Certificates of excellence were given to Kathy Price for layout, Nancy Bresnahan for headlines, Debbie Cole for cutlines, and Vicki Rohde for copy writing. Then, there was the assembly we all worked hard to prepare for and finally presented on May 7, and a softball game played against Lamar. They beat us, 11-6. We concluded our year's activities with a sports party. On May 12 we played softball with the newspaper staff and stomped them, 14-6.

This year has been one of searching and reaching, a year filled with memories of smiles at our successes and tears from our disappointments. We have grown through our accomplishments and mistakes, victories, and broken dreams. Even so, we still aren't certain of who we are or where we are going.

Let's hope we find the way.
